Mary Taggart Weds Omahan

CHAMBERS—St. Cecilia's cathedral in Omaha was the scene of the double-ring wedding rite of Miss Mary Taggart of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Taggart of Chambers, and Gerald Meussel, son of Mrs. Leona Meussel of Omaha.
 The ceremony was solemnized by Rt. Rev. Graham at 9 a.m. Saturday, August 25, before an altar decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and pink asters.
 Robert Miller, soloist, sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus." The organist was Mrs. T. Flannigan.
 Approaching the altar with her father, the bride appeared in a full-length sleeveless gown of frothy embroidered net over white satin. The embroidered lace bodice featured a wide V neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held by a tiara of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses, orange blossoms and pink sweetheart roses. She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.
 Jacquelyn Taggart was maid-of-honor for her sister. Her sleeveless gown was of frosted organza over pink taffeta fashioned with an empire waist and full skirt. She carried a dark shaded pink bouquet of baby mums, roses and carnations.

 The bridesmaids, Doris Crowder and Maxine Cook, both of Omaha, wore light green gowns fashioned like that of the maid-of-honor and carried light pink bouquets. All wore headbands of net and roses.
 Theresa Phillips of Kansas City, Mo., was flowergirl. She wore a pink brocaded satin gown.
 Jack McCabe of Lincoln was bestman. Patrick Krell and William Costello, both of Omaha, were ushers. The bridegroom and his attendants wore white and navy summer tuxedos with wine accessories. The bridegroom wore a white rose boutonniere, the others white carnations.
 The brides' mother chose a navy blue shantung gown with white accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore a blue sheath dress and jacket with navy accessories. Their corsages were pink camellias.
 A breakfast was given at the Blackstone hotel by the bride's mother.
 A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Marily Dugan, registered the guests. Nancy Williamson and Jane Hetherington took charge of the gifts and Donna Davis and Mrs. Robert Wolfe poured.
 For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose a grey and white shantung sheath dress with white accessories. The couple will live in Omaha.

2 Sisters Injured as Auto Hits Train

STUART — Two sisters from Petersburg were injured about 9:55 p.m., Wednesday, August 29, when their eastbound car struck a freight train at the U.S. highway 20 rail crossing at the east edge of town.
 Injured were Teresa Bode and Viridiann Bode. Teresa was the driver. Impact spun the car around and into the nearby driveway of the Ferd Kaup place.
 Veridiann, who was asleep in the back seat, suffered a leg injury and was dismissed the following day from Atkinson Memorial hospital. Terese was dismissed Tuesday.
 The car was demolished.
