

Nuptials at Page

PAGE—The sanctuary of the Methodist church at Page on Sunday, September 23, was the setting for the pretty wedding of Miss Mariene Elizabeth Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelly of Page, and Henry Dale Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schneider of Exeter.

Rev. Lisle Mewmaw, pastor, officiated at the double-ring 3 p.m., ceremony.

Leland Dado of Fairmont, vocalist, sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Dale Jensen of Exeter accompanied him and played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown which featured a full skirt which was fashioned of tiers of ruffled net over satin. The chantilly lace bodice was made with a mandarin collar and long sleeves with points over the hands. A lace jacket completed the ensemble and a seed pearl and rhinestone studded head band held the pleated cape-style veil. The bride wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. Her wedding bouquet was fashioned of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Victor Hoggins of Omaha, matron-of-honor, was gowned in a strapless ballerina-length dress of aqua net over taffeta, complemented by a matching stole. Her bouquet was also of pink and white carnations.

Miss Sherry Stewart, maid-of-honor, wore a gown identically like that of the matron-of-honor and carried the same type of bouquet. Miss Stewart is a friend of the bride.

Karen Kay Kelly, sister of the bride, was candlelighter and wore a ballerina-length gown of pink net over taffeta. The flower girls, little Misses Starla Schneider of Lincoln and Kathryn Dado of Fairmont, wore pink net ballerina-length gowns over polished cotton. All three wore matching head pieces.

Gale Galousha of Lincoln acted as bestman for his friend, and Gene Kelly of Tilden and Verdel Schneider of Exeter ushered.

The bride's mother wore a charcoal, satin-backed crepe dress with black and red accessories. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in an aqua silk with black and white accessories.

The sanctuary was decorated for the occasion with baskets of mixed flowers and potted plants, which were repeated in the church parlors, where a reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Lois Carson of Hyannis, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest table. Miss Elaine Clasey and Mrs. Jerry Lamason were in charge of the gift table.

Miss LaVonne Arp of Lincoln poured and Miss Jo Ann Bradlock of Hastings served the wedding cake. Mrs. Don Summers and Miss Elaine Clasey were waitresses.

Mrs. James Elmer Trowbridge, Art Grass and Herbert Steinberg were in charge of the kitchen arrangements.

The bride chose a black and white sheath dress with a black jacket for her going away costume and wore black and white accessories and the built-in corsage from her wedding bouquet. The bride is a graduate of the Page high school. Since graduation, she has been employed at Lincoln at the Banker's Life Insurance company and the telephone company.

Following his separation from the air force, the bridegroom has been employed by Western Electric Co. He is a graduate of the Exeter high school.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 1923 B St., Lincoln.
