Easy Loop Victories Niobrara Next

After having things completely their own way in the last two years, the St. Mary's academy Cardinals will be facing sterner opposition tonight (Thursday) when the Niobrara eight-man team travel to Carney park for a Niobrara Valley conference engagement.

The Lions, tied with SMA at the top rung, hold a 34-0 victory over Butte and they posted Verdigris 49-0. The Lions have yet to be scored upon.

Ronnie Branstetter, 180, pounds, and Don McDowell, 180, are key Niobrara performers.

The Cards spoiled the Lynch homecoming Friday night, 47-0. The academy defenders limited the Tigers to 14 yards on rushing plays.

Spalding Irish Spoil Homecoming

CHAMBERS—Chambers high school observed homecoming Friday and Saturday.

A parade of floats was staged Friday evening through the main street of town. Each grade room and each high school class participated. Churches, organizations and business places also participated.

Saturday evening the Chambers Coyotes played Spalding academy. Spalding won, 51-0. A king and queen were crowned. They are Gloria Pavel and Donald Mikkelsen, both seniors.

Runners up for queen and king were Darlene Harley and Bill Young, juniors; Karen Kruse and Jeri Kobay, sophomores; and Jeri Cody and Robert Gardner, freshmen.
