

LaVonne Thurlow, Adolph Dvorak Wed in Atkinson Rite

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, October 3, when Miss LaVonne Thurlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thurlow of Stuart, became the bride of Adolph Dvorak, son of Mrs. Mike Dvorak of Bee.

The double-ring 9 a.m., ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Paschang.

Sister M. Vera played the nuptial music.

Floral decorations were chrysanthemums, dahlias and snapdragons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of sheer nylon net. The full skirt was accented on either side with ruffles of nylon tiered lace and extended into a long train. Her veil of nylon net, appliqued with nylon lace flowers, was attached to crown of pearls.

She wore a pearl necklace and earrings—a gift of the bridegroom—and she carried a white prayer book with carnations and an orchid.

Mrs. Richard Kim was her sister's only attendant. She wore a ballerina-length formal of orchid net and lace with matching head piece. Her jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bride, and she wore a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

Larry Dvorak of Weston, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed with lace. He wore a light tan suit.

Sherry Dvorak of Staplehurst, niece of the bridegroom, was flowergirl. She wore a floor-length sky blue net gown trimmed with pink satin rosebuds and wore a matching net bonnet.

The bestman was Ervin Dvorak of Bee and DeLano Bohac of Staplehurst was an attendant. Ushers were Bill Pernicek of Loma and Joseph Bohac of Valparaiso. The men wore business suits with white boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a silk rose taupe dress and wore a lavender chrysanthemum corsage. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in a navy silk crepe dress with a yellow chrysanthemum corsage.

A wedding breakfast for the immediate wedding party was served at the Coffee shop by Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGrew.

A reception from 1 to 3 o'clock was held in the Stuart auditorium.

Miss Helen Kaup was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Dwayne Lockman presided at the gift table.

The Adolph Dvoraks . . . before her marriage the bride was Miss LaVonne Thurlow of Stuart.—O'Neill Photo Co.
