Martin - Hanley Nuptials Read in Church Rite

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of the Thursday, October 4, wedding of Miss Catherine Jean Martin, daughter of Mrs. William Martin of O'Neill and the late Mr. Martin, and Joseph J. Hanley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Hanley, Sr., of Sinsbury, Conn. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor performed the ceremony.

Miss Bonnie Burival was soloist. She sang "Ave Maria," "Pani-angelicus" and "On This Day." She was accompanied by Miss Alvara Ramm at the organ.

The bride chose a black tailored suit with white accessories and wore a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Robert Shaw was matron-of-honor for her sister. She appeared in a pink tailored suit with blue accessories and her corsage was pink carnations. Robert Shaw served as bestman.

The bridegroom's mother was present for the rite. A wedding breakfast was given at the M&M cafe by the bride's mother.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and is employed as a secretary in the Holt county assessor's office. The bridegroom was graduated from Sinsbury high school and is presently a radar technician in the air force, leaving for overseas duty. He was stationed at O'Neill this summer in connection with Project Prairiegrass.

Mr. Hanley will go to Japan for a year's assignment. His bride will remain here with her mother until she is able to join him.
