

Something New:
Coon Hunters Hold
Parley at Lynch

ROCK FALLS—There are organizations abounding—all types, varied purposes.
But Floyd Johnson, John Schultz and Lou Brown attended a coon hunters' convention in Lynch Friday night at the Odd Fellows hall.
Besides a dog judging and exchanging of famous hunting stories, George B. German of WNAAX was present and interviewed several members. Prizes of dog food were given to the two coming the greatest distance. Mr. Carson of South Dakota won first with second going to Floyd Johnson.
Following a lunch of coffee and donuts, the crowd went on a coon hunt, but unfortunately didn't have the luck to strike a trail.

Other Rock Falls News

Pleasant Day club and their families met on Sunday, November 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curran in O'Neill. Following a noonday buffet luncheon and a brief business meeting the group played progressive pitch the remainder of the afternoon. High scores went to James Curran and Mrs. Neil Hipke and lows to Mrs. Henry Vequist and Mrs. Robert Widfeldt.
Plans were made for a party on November 23 at the Hipke home. The next meeting will be on December 12 with Mrs. Kathryn Yantzi or Mrs. Sam Derickson, at which time Christmas gifts will be exchanged.
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson spent the November 3rd weekend in Grand Island visiting with Mrs. Johnson's brother, Herbert Breiner, and family and a sister, Miss Lois.
