Orchard Church Scene of Evening Brodie-Asch Rites

ORCHARD—Miss Marilyn Brodie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brodie of Orchard, and Karl Asch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Asch, were united in marriage Saturday, December 7, in a 7 p. m. ceremony at the Evangelical United Brethren church here. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy Dunning, pastor of the Church of Christ at Cozad, great uncle of the bride. Rev. Walter Millett of Orchard read the opening scripture. Mrs. Harvey Holbrook furnished an organ prelude accompanied by Walter K. Gray, who sang "Through The Years" and "I Love You Truly." The bride appeared in a white lace dress fashioned with sequin trim, at the scalloped neckline and lace and net panels in the skirt which was worn over a hoop. A small satin cap held the fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses. Miss Sandra Brodie of Omaha, dress was like that of the maid-of-honor, in gold color. She carried a dress with panels of darker velvet down the back of the full skirt. The snug bodice was fashioned with cap sleeves. She wore a bandeau of net over green velvet, the trim of which was studded with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of yellow pom-poms. Miss Marcele Barbelman of Omaha was bridesmaid. Her dress was like that of the maid of honor, in gold color. She carried bronze chrysanthemums. Flowergirl was Karma Lautenschlager of Orchard. Hayes McClaran of Dixon was chosen by the bridegroom as bestman. Robert Whitmer of Orchard was groomsmen. Ushers were Gordon Leiding and Paul Goller, both of Orchard. A reception for 125 guests was held in the church parlors, arranged by the bride's parents. Dwayne Dunning of Lexington provided violin music; Ann Dunning of Cozad, piano music. The bride was graduated from Orchard high school, attended Wayne State Teachers college, and is employed as primary teacher in the Brunswick public school. The bridegroom, also an Orchard high school graduate, attended the University of New Mexico and spent two years in the army. The couple will be at home at Orchard after December 14, following a trip to Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a figured blue silk dress with short faille jacket.
