

Mincemeat Affords Variation

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE, Homemaking Editor

These are the days when time is precious. Yet you want to feed the family well. If your family is fond of mincemeat, maybe you'd like to serve an upside down cake on these times.

UPSIDE DOWN CAKE
Use a package of white or yellow cake mix and prepare according to directions.

Spread $\frac{1}{4}$ cup melted butter on the bottom of a 9-inch square pan or a 1 inch round cake pan. Sprinkle $\frac{1}{2}$ cup firmly packed brown sugar on the surface of the butter. Combine $\frac{1}{2}$ cup crushed pineapple and $\frac{1}{2}$ cups prepared mincemeat. Spread evenly on surface of butter and sugar mixture. Pour the cake batter over mincemeat and pineapple mixture. Bake at 350 F. about 55 to 60 minutes. Invert pan immediately after removing from oven and let stand a few minutes before removing pan. Serve warm or cold with either a hard sauce or whipped cream.

This is an idea for winter club serving, too. Try it out on your family and see if they like it. It's a quick idea for club refreshments.

You can also combine prepared mincemeat with packaged puddings, such as vanilla or butterscotch. Add the prepared mincemeat while the pudding is hot and pour into molds and chill. Top with whipped cream. Perhaps the kids would like to make Apple Santas for use on the Christmas table.

APPLE SANTAS
For each Santa they'll want a large red apple, 7 marshmallows, 1 dried prune or dried apricot, whole cloves and toothpicks.

Insert two toothpicks in the back of the apple to hold Santa upright. Attach four marshmallows to toothpicks and stick in apple for arms and legs. Fasten another marshmallow on top of apple for Santa's face. Insert cloves for eyes and nose. Use slices of apple or a raisin for mouth.

Affix a piece of dried fruit on top of marshmallow face for hair and top with another marshmallow, (tipped at an angle) for a hat. For the beard, cut one marshmallow into two or three pieces with scissors and stick on under the chin.

CRANBERRY BREAKFAST RING
One cup cranberries, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons shortening, 1 egg, $\frac{2}{3}$ cup milk, grated rind of half lemon, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup additional flour, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 3 tablespoons butter.

Chop cranberries and add 2 tablespoons sugar. Let stand a few minutes. Sift remaining sugar with flour, baking powder and salt and work in shortening. Beat eggs with milk, stir in dry ingredients and blend well. Fold in sugared cranberries and lemon rind. Transfer to greased 9-inch deep layer cake pan. Cover with topping made by blending additional flour, brown sugar and cinnamon with butter. Bake in a hot oven of 400 F. about 30 minutes. Serve warm.

Dear Blanche:
I like to try all new recipes and want to keep The Frontier Woman in print every week so will write once again and hope others do the same. As we all like to eat good things, I am sending a good date nut bread recipe.

Boil 10 minutes, 2 cups dates, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups water. Add 3 tablespoons butter while dates are hot and let cool. Cream 2 eggs and $\frac{1}{2}$ cups sugar. Add $3\frac{1}{2}$ cups flour, 3 teaspoons soda and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt sifted together. Add alternately with date mixture. Add 1 cup chopped nuts. Bake at 275 F. oven 45 to 60 minutes. Makes 3 loaves.

GRAPE SALAD
Juice and rind of 1 orange, 1 lemon. Add 2 eggs well beaten, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon flour. Mix ingredient and place together over the fire in a double boiler. Cook until is the consistency of thick cream. Stir constantly to keep the mixture from lumping. Remove from fire and beat with an egg beater until it becomes fluffy. Wash 1-lb. of grapes, cut in half and remove the seeds. Mix with 3 bananas which have been cut in half lengthwise and sliced in $\frac{1}{2}$ inch slices, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. marshmallows cut in fourths, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chopped nuts. Mix the fruit with the dressing and let stand in refrigerator several hours before serving.

Ewing Grade School Stages Yule Program

Auditorium Is Filled for Event

EWING—The Ewing public grade school treated the residents Thursday evening to a program at the school auditorium, which was filled to capacity.

Preceding the entertainment there was a concert by the school band under the direction of Addison Slothower.

Jerry Tams and Clifford Juracek were masters-of-ceremonies. "Rainy Day", a pantomime, was the first number on the program, presented by the kindergarteners—Bonnie Arehart, Jerry Colfack, Carol Gamel, Sherry Hull, Patty Lofquest, Vicki Miller, Monica Munn, Joe Rotherham, Kim Ruby, Johnnie Sanders, Jimmy Shilousky, Richard Shain, Geraldine Snyder, Leon Spangler and Linda Yell. Mrs. Helen Grim is the teacher.

The first and second grade numbers included "Mommy's Christmas Present", by the boys; "If I Were Mrs. Santa Claus", by the girls; and a play act by the "Tumbling Turtles" under the direction of Mr. Slothower. "Rudolph's Nose Trouble" was the one-act play. In the cast were David Woeppel as Santa; Shirley Funk as Mrs. Santa; Jan Ruby, Rudolph; Maurice Hahlbeck, Bob Black and Terry Lofquest as the brownies; David Rotherham, David Shrader as soldiers; Linda Eacker, Joanne Colfack, Caroline Bergstrom and Debra Buxton as snowflakes; Leland Hull, David Stamp and Bernie Hull as the train; Patty Reifert, Brenda Rotherham, Charlene Miller, Glenda Napier as dolls; Randall Tuttle as the clown; Carolyn Hill, Julia Hamilton as fairies. The accompanist was Miss Marton Finley and Mrs. Ruth Hansen is the teacher.

The third and fourth grades presented "The Shoemaker's Christmas". In the cast were Jim Kropp and Kathleen Wanser, the shoemaker and his wife; Larry Blunt as the cat; Russell Tuttle as the dog; Michael Reifert, LeRoy Napier, Ronnie Sisson, Douglas Loughrey, and Jerome Miller as elves; Julian Sojka as his man; Laura Lee Gamel as his wife; Sharon West, Jeanne Hobbs, Barbara Schilousky as his daughters; Mary Sharon Munn, the princess; Dick Wanser, Garry Black, Terry Wright, Richard Kropp, Frank Eppenbach, Lonnie Eacker, Billy Lofquest as guards; Rita Rotherham, Evelyn Snyder, Evelyn True, Judy Colfack, Kay Hahlbeck, Nancy Loughrey, Myra Pruden, Donna Stamp, Donna Tams, Cathy Lofquest, Janice Tams, Laura Lee Gamel, Sharon West, Julian Sojka, Frances Bergstrom, Billy Lofquest as carolers. Accompanists were Alvera Schilousky and Bernadine Keeler. Mrs. Grace Thompson is the teacher.

The fifth and sixth graders' play, all in costume, was "Santa Inspects the Toys" with Jack Kropp and Myra Rotherham as Mr. and Mrs. Santa. Other characters were: Kay Bergstrom and Bonnie Weiko, drum majorettes; Judy Spangler and Mary Karen Funk, as Raggedy Ann; Florene Black and Joan Spangler, as Raggedy Andy; Sandra Tellender, the dancing doll; Billy Hobbs, Larry Minarik, as workers; Jerry Bauer, my Tams, foreman; Jerry Bauer, Virtus Lee, and Clarence Colfack, the jesters; Larry Juracek, Eddie Rotherham, Louis Martin, as clowns; Karen Woeppel as the cat; Ronnie Tuttle as Jack-in-the-box. Accompanist was Carolyn Tams. Miss Doris North teaches these grades.

The seventh and eighth grades, taught by Mrs. Beulah Black, presented "The Man on the Street", an appropriate concluding number, expressing the true meaning of Christmas. Alfred Schilousky was the announcer assisted by Gene Daniels. Others in the cast were Sharon Hobbs, Larry Noffke, Leonora Tuttle, Clifford Steskal, Larry Tuttle, Dan Rotherham, Jerry Black, Betty Wright, Robert Woeppel, Tom Sisson, Jerry Sisson, Patty Hobbs, Annette Rotherham, Freddie Wright.

Making up the chorus for carols were: Bertha Harris, Marie Davis, LaRoyce Blunt, Karen Minarik, Sharon Hobbs, Patty Hobbs, Mary Ann Bauer, Tom Sisson, Donnie Black, Ronnie Black, Dan Rotherham, Larry Noffke. Accompanist was Carolyn Tams. These grades are taught by Miss Doris North.

American Republic to Tell Health Plans

This issue of The Frontier carries the announcement that enrollments will be open in the American Republic hospital and surgical plan in O'Neill. This plan has protected residents of many other Nebraska communities.

American Republic is now in its 27th year of service. O'Neill has been selected as one of the cities to participate in this community enrollment opportunity.

The plan has been widely endorsed for its liberal coverages for hospital expenses and surgical bills. Many Nebraskans have received benefits for hospitalization or for doctors' bills incurred because of operations.

Accredited enrollment representatives will interview residents of this area and give those who qualify the opportunity to enroll. It is intended that every home in O'Neill will be contacted and residents of this community can show their support of this enrollment opportunity by giving the accredited enrollment representative a few minutes of their time when he calls.

Every enrollment representative will carry an identification card bearing his signature and that of an officer of the company. This will be your assurance that you are being visited by an accredited enrollment representative, directly authorized by the home office to accept enrollments from those who can qualify.
