The Frontier Woman

Hey, Gals! Letters are Needed

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE, Homemaking Editor

Will our Frontier Woman readers please get busy and send us some letters for use in the Frontier? I have none for use today so you'll have to read all Pease Patter. Your letters can be about anything you wish, and you may sign a pen name if you wish, but please include your name and address for the editor's benefit. Send your letters to Blanche Spann Pease, The Frontier Woman, Atkinson, Neb. Please be sure to put the Frontier Woman notation on the letter.
 Does it seem to you that you have guests frequently or motel owners. A camp stool makes a good stand for a guest's luggage. Paint or enamel it to harmonize with the other furniture in a room.
 Carry stamped envelopes and paper and pencil in your purse. Then when you have to wait for your husband in town, you can use the time writing some of those letters that you never seem to have the time to do at home. You might even write one of them to the Frontier Woman!

Does it seem to you that you stove uses too much gas. Flame showing outside a kettle of boiling liquid represents wasted fuel. Turn down the flame until it does not show around the edge of the pan.
 If you heat water in a tea kettle to wash dishes, perhaps you put it on too soon and then let it boil away thus wasting fuel. Put it on just before you start to pick up the dishes and stack them. Then proceed to stack the dishes and make ready to wash. By then the water may be ready for washing and fuel won't be wasted by an endlessly boiling tea kettle. Always having plenty of hot water on hand seems like a luxury to me even after five years of having it! It's just plain wonderful.

Here's Use for Paper Clips
 When ironing pleated dresses, use paper clips for fastening the pleats at the hem. This will hold them in place. You'll save injury if you snap any garment together that have snaps on them before washing.
 If you want a garment quickly and still have a wringer washer, you can fold the newly washed garment in a dry turkish towel, preferably a large one and run through the wringer. Repeat several times, using a dry towel each time. The garment will be dried enough so you can iron it.
 If dad or big brother has some dress shirts gone in the sleeves, but still with good shirt tails, you can make them into shorts for small brother. This is particularly a good idea with white shirts, for you're sure to have plenty of still good material in a couple or more shirt tails from white shirts.
 Glue 21 inches of a new tape measure along the front of the sewing machine. Put a coat of clear varnish over the top. The measuring tape will not be very noticeable but you can still measure on the handy numerals. It will save you time and searching for a tape, too.
 Do you have a bath set for the bath room, stool cover and bath mat? You've washed the bath mat many times and it is more faded than the stool cover? Give them both a dye bath and they'll come out looking fresh and practically new. You can do it in your washing machine if you follow the directions on the dye box.

 Date dishes of all kinds are always so good at this season of the year. Maybe you'd like to stir up a batch of these date cookies today. You'll all like them.
DATE COOKIES
 Cream 1/2 cup shortening with 1 cup honey, add 3 well beaten eggs, add 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder to creamed mixture, add 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 cup chopped dates.
 Spread on greased pan about 1/2 inch thick. Bake in a 350 F. oven about 40 minutes. Cut in strips. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. These are best when a day old.
BLACK WALNUT PATTIES
 Beat 1 egg, mix with 1 cup brown sugar, 1/8 teaspoon salt, stir in 1 cup chopped walnuts, 6 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon black walnut extract.
 Mix thoroughly, drop onto greased baking sheet. Bake in 350 F. oven 15 minutes. Makes about two dozen or more patties.

Urges Early Filing for Tax Refunds

Most taxpayers who find that they are due refunds on federal income taxes withheld in the preceding year will make every effort to prepare and file returns as soon as the filing season starts in hopes of an early check from Uncle Sam to reimburse the excess tax payments.
 Between 40 and 50 percent of Nebraska taxpayers fall in this category annually, according to District Director McClory of the Omaha office of the internal revenue service.
 "We're glad to receive early returns," Mr. McClory declared. "Most of them can be processed quickly and refund checks sent on their way back to these alert filers. But we'd also like to get some of that same cooperation from two other classes of taxpayers—those who owe nothing, and those who owe a few dollars.
 Meanwhile, federal tax refunds on gas used for farming purposes are now being made for yearly rather than six month periods.
 Next refund payments will be made on gas used for farming purposes between July 1, 1956 and June 30, 1957. Farmers will have a three-month period from July 1 to October 1, 1957 to apply for the federal tax refund on gas used during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1957.
 In 1956 farmers were able to apply for federal tax refunds after June 30 on gas used for farming purposes during the first half of this year.
 Farmers should keep an accurate account of their gas expenditures and save gas receipts. Application for the refund is made on internal revenue service form 2240 which will be available from the district office at Omaha and at the county extension office after July 1.

AK-SAR-BEN HONORS COMMUNITY BUILDERS

Ak-Sar-Ben's first aim is to improve the Midwest's agriculture and livestock industries. But Ak-Sar-Ben is interested in civic as well as economic development of Nebraska.

Ak-Sar-Ben recognizes that the local newspaper is one of the most potent forces for good in each community. For that reason, Ak-Sar-Ben sponsors an annual Community Service Contest among Nebraska Newspapers. The four newspapers judged to have conducted the best campaigns for civic improvements receive handsome plaques, plus $200 each to be used to benefit their home towns. Ak-Sar-Ben also gives $100 prizes to newspapers doing outstanding jobs in promoting better agriculture.

For 14 years, Ak-Sar-Ben has been presenting Good Neighbor Awards. Gold lapel pins and framed citations are given individuals or groups who win distinction by unselfish service to their fellow men. In 1956, a program was inaugurated to build tradition and to encourage stability on Nebraska farms and ranches. Plaques were presented to many people whose farms have been operated by the same family for 100 years or more. Thoroughbred racing revenues make all these programs possible.

FACTS ABOUT AK-SAR-BEN

Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum, holding 12,000 spectators, is one of the Midwest's outstanding show places. Most Nebraskans have been in this arena at one time or another to watch the nation's finest ice shows, rodeos, the world's largest 4-H Beef Show or an Ak-Sar-Ben Coronation. It is in fact a community center serving the entire middle west.

Names of all who have won major awards at the Live Stock Show are engraved on bronze plaques in a permanent record at Ak-Sar-Ben Field's Circle of Champions. Since the world's largest 4-H Beef Show is in its 30th year, it's not uncommon to see a father showing his name with pride to his son, a present day 4-H exhibitor.

Fourteen years ago, Ak-Sar-Ben was selected to be one of 40 member tracks in the Thoroughbred Racing Association. This organization insures that thoroughbred racing at member tracks must be conducted on the highest plane. Former FBI Special Agents maintain constant vigilance to eliminate undesirable people or conditions in the sport.
