Diane Gillespie, 11, Is Speech Winner

Fick, Gilg, Brady Also Chosen

The annual 4-H club public speaking contest was held Saturday, February 16 at the courthouse. Seventeen 4-H members representing several different 4-H clubs in Holt county competed.

Girls (14 and Over)
Kathy Brady of the Willing Workers club, O'Neill, first; Marlene Beck of the Clover club, Atkinson, second.

Boys (14 and Over)
James Gilg of Clover club, Atkinson, first; James Melor of Clover club, Atkinson, second.

Girls (Under 14)
Diane Gillespie of Willing Workers club, O'Neill, first; Margie Gilg of Clover club, Atkinson, second.

Boys (Under 14)
Gary Fick of Victory Boys and Girls club, Inman, first; Jack Gilg of Clover club, Atkinson, second.

Winner of the older group will compete in the district public speaking contest to determine who will compete in state competition at Lincoln.

Miss Gillespie, who just observed her 11th birthday anniversary, is one of the youngest winners ever named in the speech competition here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gillespie. Gilg's topic, "The Unknown Boy"; Brady's, "4-H in the Future of America"; Fick, "Let's Take a Trip"; and Gillespie's, "At the Fair".

The district elimination contest is tentatively scheduled to be held at Bassett in April.
