

Simonson-Becker Rites Saturday at St. Patrick's

Before altars decorated with pink snapdragons and ferns, Miss Lorraine Catherine Simonson was united in marriage to Donovan Joseph Becker, Saturday, February 23 at 10 a. m. nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor. Acolytes were Jim Enright and Gary Holly.

Large baskets of pink gladioli adorned the altar rails. The family pews were marked with white bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley C. Simonson of O'Neill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Becker of O'Neill.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a pure silk gown of peau de soie, featuring a Basque waist and long tapered sleeves. The scalloped oval neckline was bordered with Alexandrian lace set with seed pearls. The voluminous skirt swept into a chapel length train. Her waist length veil of imported French illusion was fastened to a half bonnet of illusion embroidered with pearls. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white hydrangeas.

Mrs. Russell Moier, a sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a cocktail length turquoise gown of crystalite, fashioned with an empire waistline and accented with a peacock blue cummerbund.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Barbara Becker, a sister of the bridegroom, of Kansas City, Kans., Madeleine Birmingham of Denver, Colo., Bernadette Hynes of New York, and Jane Kennedy of Coon Rapids, Ia., wore identical dresses to that of the matron-of-honor, but were contrasting peacock blue trimmed with turquoise. All the attendants wore short white gloves and carried pink feathered colonial bouquets, had matching headbands of crystalite studded with seed pearls.

James Becker served as his brother's bestman. Ushers were John Curry of Kansas City, Mo., fiance of Miss Barbara Becker, Gerald Wilds of Emmet, Jack Carney and Robert Holsclaw. The men wore Oxford suits with carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Simonson appeared in a navy pure silk brocaded sheath with matching accessories. Both had cymbidium corsages.

Miss Bonnie Burival, vocal soloist, accompanied by Miss Alvara Ramm of Stuart, on the organ, sang Rosemary's "Ava Maria", "O Lord, I am Not Worthy" and "O Sanctissima". Miss Ramm played "Coeur de Jesus" for the processional and "Joy Triumphant" as the recessional.

A breakfast for 50 guests was held at the Town House. A reception from 2 until 4 p. m., for two
