Bride of Omahan in Ewing Church Rites

EWING—Miss Bonnie Jo Jefferies, daughter of Mrs. Roy Wright and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jefferies, all of Ewing, and Donald Drey of Omaha were married Sunday, March 3, in a 2:30 p.m. ceremony at the Methodist church here. Rev. L. E. Bridson performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Drey of Omaha.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, was gowned in a white embroidered tulle over silk taffeta dress. The fitted bodice, buttoned at the back and cut to a point at the front, featuring a high sabrina neckline of patterned lace embroidered in a rose pattern. The long fitted sleeves were pointed and crushed at the wrists.

The very bouffant skirt was shirred full at the waist and was worn over hoops. The patterned lace in deep shirred tiers cascaded the full-length of the skirt in the front. A wide flange of the patterned lace fashioned the side panels.

She also wore the traditional something old, something new. Her bouquet of pink carnations was centered with a matching corsage.

Miss Patricia Wright of Ewing, was her sister's maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Leola and Velva Drey, both of Omaha, sisters of the bridegroom. The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of blue nylon net with matching head pieces and carried bouquets of white carnations centered with a pink carnation.

The bridegroom wore a navy blue business suit. He was attended by his brother, Wayne Drey of Omaha. Groomsman and the bestmen were Royce Wright, brother of the bride, and Loyal Drey, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom and his attendants wore white carnation boutonnières.

Ushers were Galen Maben of Clearwater, cousin of the bride and Melvin Drey, of Omaha, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Drey chose a suit of winter white for her son's wedding. Mrs. Wright wore a beige dress. Mrs. Jefferies wore a navy blue dress. All wore white carnation corsages.

The soloist, Miss Neta Lee Maben of Clearwater, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". Pianist was Miss Doris Ann Spahn of Ewing.

The Misses Vera Dell and Sharon Daniels, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters. The reception, held at the church parlors following the ceremony, was attended by 125 relatives and friends.

The four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, under a bell ornament with lilies-of-the-valley, was baked and decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue-and-white by the bride's mother, by her aunt, Mrs. Wilma Daniels and by Mrs. Fred Maben of Clearwater. The cake was flanked by white candles in crystal holders. Mrs. Maben cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Mark Muff of O'Neill poured. Mrs. Galen Maben assisted.

Mrs. Dick Dale of Tuthill, S. D., sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guestbook. Assisting with the gifts were Mesdames Wayne, Duane, and Melvin Drey of Omaha and Miss Carolyn Muff of O'Neill.

Mrs. Drey is a graduate of the Ewing high school, class of 1955. She completed a business course at an Omaha school and since has been employed at the Anderson Brothers Engineering Co. Mr. Drey has served two years in the army and is now employed for Swift & Co., in Omaha.
