

Sick & Injured

O'NEILL—Little Andy Thomas Donohoe, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donohoe, returned home Tuesday, March 5, from St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha. The doctors advised against heart surgery now on a patient so young. Little Andy Thomas gained some weight while he was in Omaha. Mrs. Francis ("Fritz") Howard was rushed to Sioux City late Sunday for an emergency appendectomy at St. Vincent's hospital. Her condition is "good". Miss Lorene Wetzler submitted to major surgery Friday at St. Anthony's hospital. She is employed at Shelhamers Jack & Jill store. Richard Minton returned Monday from the Veteran's hospital in Grand Island, where he had a checkup. Quite a few persons are suffering from some kind of a sickness that swells throats. Mrs. Ena Fox, 62, who fell at her home Tuesday, March 5, and was unconscious for several days, is "improved" at St. Anthony's hospital. Her son, Jerry, was summoned from Cheyenne, Wyo. Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson, who were vacationing in California, were called back by the sudden illness of his mother, Mrs. James Davidson. Mrs. Davidson's condition is "better". Henry Gruenke, who lives five miles west of here, Saturday was taken by ambulance to the Veterans hospital, Grand Island.

CHAMBERS—Bill Held went to Omaha Sunday to be with Mrs. Held and their daughter, Kay, when the latter submitted to heart surgery on Monday, March 11, at St. Joseph's hospital. The operation was a success. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wright and Arliss drove to Sioux City Saturday to meet his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright. The latter had been at Waterloo, Ia., where their son-in-law, Jack Taggart, was seriously ill in a hospital with pneumonia. They report Mr. Taggart improved and able to return to his home. Ralph Green was admitted to St. Anthony's hospital Thursday, March 7. A. H. Bentley of Chambers suffered a heart attack Saturday, March 9. Mrs. Charles Grimes entered St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill recently for medical care. Mrs. C. V. Robertson, who had been a patient a week in St. Anthony's hospital, submitted to surgery Tuesday, March 6.

LYNCH—Both Mr. and Mrs. Floyd France were taken to the Sacred Heart hospital Wednesday, March 6. Mrs. France suffered a severe cold and Mr. France was afflicted with a lame back. Mrs. William Teadick moved to York, S. D., Saturday, March 9, after her husband, who had been confined in the hospital there the past week. The Veldon Lee family has been quite ill with the flu the past week.

Lourdes hospital, Norfolk. Frank Bollwitt last week underwent surgery at a Norfolk hospital. Pat Knapp was hospitalized at O'Neill last week with influenza and complications.

INMAN—Mrs. Harry Snyder arrived home Wednesday, March 6, from Lincoln where she had spent 10 days receiving medical care. Ernest Trowbridge entered St. Anthony's hospital on Saturday morning, suffering with influenza. James Kelley, who had been a patient at St. Anthony's hospital for a week, was released Saturday.

ROCK FALLS—Linda Hynes has been ill with a cold and sore throat and missed some school last week, however, she was better at this writing and able to be back in school again.

REDBIRD—Debra Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Anderson, has been having a siege of mumps this week.

CELLA—William Maloun was a Saturday overnight patient in Atkinson Memorial hospital.

Man, 72, Killed in Two-Car Crash

CHAMBERS—A Chambers man, Wayne B. Peterson, 31, figured in a fatal auto accident about 4:30 p. m., Saturday in which Frank Seier, 72, of Petersburg was killed. Peterson's machine collided with Peterson's at an intersection on state highway 14 near Loretto. An eight-year-old boy riding with Seier was unhurt. Peterson suffered facial cuts and bruises, also from shock. Both cars were badly damaged and the Peterson machine is regarded as a total loss.

Peterson was traveling north on highway 14. Seier came onto the highway from a country road.

CENTER IS OPENED—EWING—A large crowd was on hand for the formal opening of the youth center last Thursday evening. Dancing was enjoyed. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Don Burroede and Miss Alice Hamilton.

MOVE TO DAKOTA—EWING—Mr. and Mrs. Don Lines moved during the weekend onto a South Dakota ranch. Mrs. Lines' father, at the ranch, is ill.
