Sister Dolores . . . long career in teaching and hospital fields. -The Frontier Photo.

Sister M. Dolores to Mark 50th Jubilee

Methodist HQ Bishop Watts Will occasion Saturday, May 11 at a jubilee mass at the chapel at 3 cept or reject the application.

Visit Sunday The new 20-thousand-dollar iated Sunday afternoon by Nebraska Methodist Bishop H. Bascom Watts of Lincoln. Open-house will be observed between 2:30 and 5 o'clock. Dr. J. LaVerne Jay is district superinepirndnntee SSMtr db,e m ette departed. She then became superintendent and he and his ing was completed last fall. Meanwhile, the former district headquarters, the former P. P. Mc-Manus residence, corner of Fifth and Everett, has been sold to seph's hospital, Alliance, where Dwight Worcester.

located on Seventh street, a half-

Bristow Church Is Improved

BRISTOW—On Sunday, May 5, the Methodist church here wall be celebrating its golden jubilee. '34 she returned to Sacred Heart church has been undergoing ex- taught summers at the normal tensive redecoration under the school. leadership of Mr. and Mrs. William Lakouta. Members and old, lives in Buffalo. Last year, friends of the church removed all as a jubilee gift, she spent a week the old wallpaper. Woodwork with her and her family in Bufwas varnished, floors sanded and falo. Her mother will be unable the only paid labor involved a to make the trip here for the carpets have been installed.

At Sunday's 11 o'clock worhour Nebraska Methodist Bishop H. Bascom Watts will de-liver the rededication sermon, assisted in the service by Dr. J. Laverne Jay of O'Neill, northeast Nebraska district superintendent. A basket dinner will be served at noon. The afternoon will be spent informally. Greetings will be read from former pastors and friends of the church residing serves both the Bristow and of burial arrangements. Spencer parishes.

Everette Jekaman, former district superintendent and now pastor of First Methodist church at the Community church here of Norfolk. Rev. Clyde Wells of Spencer

No New Teachers Have Been Hired-

Supt. M. J. Baack of the O'-Neill city schools said Wednesday no new teachers have been hired for 1957-'58 term.

Applications for vocal music and eighth grade vacancies will be considered at the May meeting next week. Earlier all other teachers were reelected.

Miss Alvara Ramm, teacher at St. Mary's academy, has applied for the position being vacated by Richard Smithson at the public school. Smithson at the public school. Smithson 11:45 p.m. at Rockford. The was not a candidate for reelectruneral was held at 9:30 a.m. Sat-

LIBRARIANS CONVENE

will be held in the Atkinson town- and one brother. ship library. Mrs. Donald R. Davis, librarian, is in charge of ar- ly was employed by the Seth Norangements. Mrs. George H. Fro- ble Lumber company and was a hardt will welcome the guests.

WEATHER SUMMARY A half-inch of rain fell Tuesday night at Chambers. Grand and Bernard of Beatrice; daugh-Island received an inch.

			Hi	Lo	Prec.
April	25	*	74	45	T
April	26		62	43	.08
				34
April	28		72	37
April	29		77	39
			70	51	.04
May	1 .		78	58	.03

Mr. and Mrs. Richard ("Dick") and Dan Edwards of Newark, O. Minton, jr., railway postal clerk, moved Wednesday to Long Pine. He works on Chicago & North Western mainline trains be- of the Chamber of Commerce garten, and her brother,

Other arrangements will be announced in next week's paper. Sister Dolores took her perpetcombination parsonage-district of- convent at Buffalo, N. Y., July ual vows at the Sacred Heart sons, mostly from the Fifth disfice of the Methodist church head 9, 1907. She left for New Lexin northeast Nebraska will be dedington, O., where she taught one year in seventh and eighth grades and 10 years in high school at St. Aloysius academy. In 1917 she came to St. Mary's academy where she taught the junior class until Sr. M. Antoinprincipal and taught normal wife reside in the new building training and senior class unt'l 1942, when she became ill. She block north of Douglas. The buildhas spent 25 years at St. Mary's

To Alliance

She was transferred to St. Jc- been received. she taught nurses classes and served as librarian at the nurses' training school from 1945 until 25 percent of the voters in the

She returned to O'Neill in July, 1952, to take charge of the office of St. Anthony's hospital when it opened September, 1952. In the summer of 1932, '33 and For the past two months the academy in Buffalo where she

Her mother, who is 90-yearspainter. New pews, light fix-jubilee anniversary, even though tures, memorial windows and isle she is well and able to get out at

Funeral at Stuart

STUART-Adolph Zahl of Stuart died late Friday, April 26, in in Atkinson Memorial hospital. He had submitted to a leg amputation last winter.

Evening speaker will be Dr. Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Monday, April 29, with Rev. D. D. Su officiating. Coats funeral home was in charge

The late Mr. Zahl was a former resident of Rock county. Survivors include: Daughters Mrs. Nellie Stevenson and Mrs. George Minnig, both of Stuart; Mrs. C. W. Holm of Omaha; Mrs. Frank Lenderman of Bassett; sons-Willard Zahl of Mills and John Zahl of Valentine.

Thomas Edwards Dies in Illinois

Thomas R. Edwards of 513 Boylston St., Rockford, Ill., died Tuesday, April 23, of a stroke at urday at the Delanty Funeral

The late Mr. Edwards was ATKINSON - Librarians and born at Newark, Wisc., March other library officials from 30 21, 1890, the son of the late John towns in the north-central Ne- and Celia Edwards. On Decembraska area have been invited to ber 11, 1911 he was married to attend a district meeting of the Louise Johnson. They had three Nebraska Library association here children. He was preceded in today (Thursday) The session death by his parents, one sister

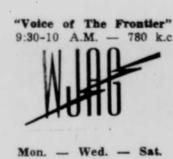

The late Mr. Edwards formerviolin player for dance groups in

Among the survivors: Widow sons-John Shobert of Rockford Bur- ter-Mrs James (Cecelia) Marsh of Rockford, nine grandchildren; brothers—J. W. of Orchard and Delos of Rockton, Ill.

Among those attending from a distance were Charles Johnson of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Fred Betts of Nebraska City, Mrs. Day Higbee of Lincoln. Mrs. J. W. Edwards of Orchard, Delos Edwards and Arthur Edwards and Lynn Smith of Omaha, George Edwards of Council Bluffs, la.,

CHAMBER TO MEET

There will be a regular meeting tween Long Pine and Chadron. Monday at 7 p.m. at Slats.

HE FRONTIER

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 77.—Number 1.

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, May 2, 1957

Seven Cents

Barthel in About-Face on Quitting

Supervisor Withdraws Resignation Before Board Takes Action

An unprecedented turn of events created considerable interest at the Holt county courthouse Tuesday morning. Kenneth Barthel of Chambers, Fifth district republican supervisor, Wednesday, April 24, filed a resignation with Holt County Clerk Kenneth Waring.

When the Holt board of supervisors convened at 9 a.m., Tues-day for a routine last-day-of-thenonth meeting, it was expected by most observers that the resig-nation would be accepted as a Sr. M. Dolores, who is in charge of the office at St. Anthony's hospital, will observe her 50th anniversary in the Sisters of St.

The board hadn't to Be Dedicated Francis order, Tuesday, July 9. However, she will celebrate the been given an opportunity to ac-

> During the board meeting that followed there was an airing of Barthel's position. Fifteen pertrict, were present, including members of the Chambers township board. Gus Robinson spoke in behalf of Barthel. others, including Glen White, the Chambers township and board-Walter, Farrier and Rouse -asked the board to request the resignation of Barthel. The Fifth district includes the Chambers, Amelia and Chambers localities.

The rumor mill already had been working for a successor. Names prominently mentioned were James H. Gibson and Al Dierking, but no applications had district must sign a petition. 'The percentage number is based on the total votes for governor in the last previous general election.

Petition Talked

In other matters the supervisors approved making a county road of a two-mile stretch in the Celia locality. Milton McKath-nie of Atkinson appeared in bealf of the proposal.

Hugh Langan, who farms north of O'Neill on the Ed Earley place, was given county approval for a beer license at the Midway store, for which he has a purchase agreement. The Langan application is subject to approval of the state liquor commission.

MRS YANTZIE IN TORNADO Mrs. C. V. Yantzi of Milford, mother of the late Levi Yantzie, who was in the tornado stricken city, was unharmed and had liftle damage to her home. However, the homes on either side were badly damaged.

Mother Agnesine

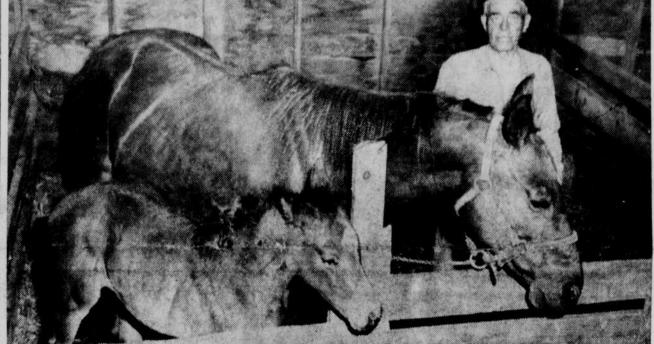

Renews Her Vows

gan at a 7 o'clock mass in which and set out for Ak-Sar-Ben track he renewed her vows, Mother M. at Omaha. Agnesine of St. Mary's academy Mr. Johnson is 68-years-old Tuesday marked her 25th (silver) and expects to make the racing ubilee in the Sisters of St. Fran- circuit as long as he can navigate. cis order.

Her brother, Rev. Joseph Har- The Johnsons next year will be garten, officiated. At 9:30 a. m., observing their golden wedding a high mass was offered at St. anniversary. Patrick's Catholic church and lat- For years he has been winterer students of the academy pre- ing his runners at the Johnson sented a special program.

convent at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1930. located 15 miles north of O'Neill She has taught in New York, New and 31/2 miles east. The thoro-Jersey, Ohio, Colorado, South Da- breds winter well at the wellkota and Nebraska.

ing to Rushville, returning here in It was from the late Peter Duf-1954 as superior of the school. fy, longtime democratic sheriff of they pay!

Donald Kellner, chairman of the congregation at Christ Lutheran church, reads the list of contents placed in a metal box for keep in the cornerstone of the new church here. Ceremonies were

Precious Dawn, 21-year-old mare—the last of the Pete Duffy string—poses with her latest offspring. Andy Johnson, 68, O'Neill farmer, took over the Duffy horses when the colorful sheriff died .- The Frontier Photo.

Johnsons Start Track Season

The dean of Holt county race | Holt, that Mr. Johnson acquired The dean of Holt county race holt, that Mr. don't horsemen set out early Monday his enthusiasm for race horses.

for the summer's grind on the "I got it in my blood then, and "I got it in my blood then my blood pari-mutuel circuit.

ceding the rite.-The Frontier Photo.

Andy (A. G.) Johnson, accompanied by his wife, loaded two ine horses, Tap Toe and Flower In an all-day affair, which be- Show, aboard their rig at 6 a. m.,

He is a lifelong resident of Holt.

Mother Agnesine entered the of Redbird creek. The place is protected Johnson farm under the She taught at O'Neill before go- care of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

farm, which lies in a lush valley

Mother M. Agnesine, superior at St. Mary's academy, poses with her mother, Mrs. Emma Harph margarten of Kushville. Elaborate silver jubilee cake was baked by Miss Connie Coufal of Stuart.—The Frontier Photo.

have been carrying it ever since," explains the veteran race man. Duffy was one of the earlier sheriff, he never marired, his friends were legion, he succeeded at the polls time-after-time. When Duffy died Mr. Johnson acquired a small string of horses. One of these, Precious Dawn, a 21-year-old mare, still lives and a few weeks ago foaled a right pert young colt.

norsemen in the area. A colorful pects coming up," grins Mr. Johnson as he caressed old Precous Dawn-the last tie with Duf-Tap Toe, a four-year-old, is owned by Buv Wanser of Page, another oldtimer in the business. (Continued on page 10.)

Frontier want ads don't cost . .

Stuart Will Go It Alone on Fire Unit

The Stuart rural fire protection district, stripped of its Rock county allies because of opposition from the Rock county commissioners, will go it alone, and the Stuart district has petitioned the Holt county board of supervisors to create a new district. "I've got some good race pros-The proposed unit would include a belt three miles wide on the west side of Dustin township, of Holt Creek, Stuart and Cleveland townships, and west half of Green Valley.

Youngs to Auction 320-Acre Farm

Saturday, May 4: George J. and Ida M. Mott of O'Neill, two dwellings east of fire station; consignments of personal pro-perty accepted; Col. Ed. Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer-real estate broker. (Details on page 15.) Wednesday, May 15: Clarence and Anna Mae Young, northeast of Chambers, moving to another state; livestock, machinery, household goods; also 320-acre farm, including seven-room dwelling; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer-real estate broker; Chambers State bank, clerk. (Details April 25: next week.)

500 More Lightweight Heifers to Indians

An additional 500 head of lightweight heifer calves were pur-chased in Holt county this week by representatives of the Cheyenne Indian agency. Tuesday's purchase was made from L. A. Hobbs & Son of Ewing.

A week earlier a similar group head were purchased by Indian ered dish luncheon. agents visiting Bassett.

POSTOFFICE CLOSES

MARIAVILLE -The postoffice in this Rock county community been closed. Postmaster

'Christ Cornerstone

(Another photo on page 9.) While a large crowd of parishners and friends of the church ooked on under a bright sun. the cornerstone for the new Christ Lutheran church, Seventh and Clay sts., was layed Sunday af-

Rev. Walter Hartmann of Ainsthe sermon.

"This is happy day," he told his listeners. "You see a dream of many years coming through. "I remember when the congregation was formed 15 years ago and services were held in a tiny frame building in West O'-Neill. I watched you progress. And now, under the leadership of your new pastor, kev. A S. Gedvillo you are embarking on a fine new house of the Lord. It will be an asset and a blessing to the Lutherans and to O'Neill. "Christ, who was rejected in be used exclusively to proclaim the Lord's business.' The Gothic-type structure will cost 70-thousand-dollars. A dedication will be held later.

srael, is the real cornerstone of conducted Sunday afternoon. Left-to-right: Richard Nelson, Edward Krugman (chairman of the William Chesak, 70, building committee), Fred Frerichs, Harry A. Larson, Gerhardt Luebcke of Page, Rev. A. S. Gedwillo (church pastor), Willard Frerichs of Page, Harvey Krugman (partially hidden), and Rev. Walter Hartmann of Ainsworth (circuit visitor), who delivered the cornerstone sermon pre-Burial at Spencer Scouts Lease Knox Resident of Boyd

Since 1893 SPENCER - William Chesak, farmer-blacksmith in the Spencer community for many years, died Friday, April 26, in Sacred Heart hospital at Lynch. He had suffered a stroke before dam.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m., Tuesday, April 3., at St. Mary's Catholic church. Rev. William A. Foster, church pastor, officiated and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. Pall- Northern Setting H. Wenke, Marvin Havranek, Jacob Classen, Gordon Pelc and Jerome Prokop.

A rosary service was held Monday evening at the Jones funeral

The late Mr. Chesak was born April 11, 1887, at Ord, a son of Charles and Magdalene Vavra

In 1893 he moved with his famly to Boyd county. On March 31, 1909, at Spencer ne married Miss Rose Kalchik. Survivors include: Widow Rose; sisters-Miss Anne Chesak of Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Emma DeWitt of Albuquerque, N. M.; brother—Charles of Chicago, Ill. Death was believed to have been caused by cerebral hemhor-

Edith Eyer, 78, Rites at Orchard

ORCHARD — Funeral services Rodney Elkins.
for Mrs. Edith Eyer, 78, former Leonard Wintermote and Ruth Royal resident, who died Mon- Ann Damme were crowned king day, April 22, at Springfield, Ore., and queen. were conducted Saturday after- Ladies were presented a white noon, April 27, at the United rose corsage; gentlemen, white

Her family came to Nebraska when she was seven-years-old. Her maiden name was Edith Grove. On June 15, 1899, she was married to Harry Eyer. He died March 12, 1955. Survivors include: Daughter-Mrs. Clifford Meioner of Springfield, Ore., three grandchildren.

SMA Athletic Banquet Planned

Coach Tommy Thompsen of Creighton university, Omaha, Ten sophomore boys and girls will be principal speaker Sunday evening at the annual St. Mary'. cademy athletic banquet. Letters will be awarded to to Fremontparticipants in football, basketball and track. Thompson delivered to Creighton the best basketball record in about 15 years.

Club Group Spends Day in Perkins Park

CHAMBERS - The following nembers of the Beautiful Valley Garden club worked at the Perkins Memorial park Thursday, Mrs. M. L. Sageser, Mrs. Victor Harley, Mrs. Reed Bell, Mrs. Lew Backhaus and Mrs. H. C.

World War I Vets Will Be Honored

A joint meeting of Simonson post 93 of the American Legion was bought at the Atkinson Live- and auxiliary was held Wednesstock Market. On Monday, 20 day evening. There was a cov- Parks. Sharlene McDermott, in Armed forces day-May 18will be honored. Plans also are being made for observance of memorial day.

ceived requesting cancellation on Saturday, May 4, in the locker at Phillips 66 gas station in Colby, the last day of the operation. Inman. It will begin at 2 p. m. Kans.

of New Church, 2 Children Perish in House Fire

worth, circuit visitor, preached Tragedy Strikes in Family of Former Scottville Resident

DORSEY - Two girls in the amily of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hiscocks of Gaston, Ore., died in a fire that destroyed the home on Thursday, April 25. Dead are Roberta, 11, and Judy

Cause of the fire was blamed on an oil burner.

Mr. Hiscocks is brother of Thomas Hiscocks of the Dorsey community. Thomas left by train this church and this house will to attend the funeral services. Robert was reared at Scottville, a son of Mrs. Harry Hiscoks and the late Mrs. Hiscocks. He served in World War II and later married in Oregon. His wife was hospitalized in a state of shock following the tragedy. The couple has a nine-year-old-son.

Devil's Nest Tract

Howard Murphy of Norfolk, district chairman for the Boy Scouts, has announced that a long-term lease has been signed for a 40-acre tract of land east of and adjacent to the Devil's Nest recreation area on Lewis B Clark lake in Knox county. The lake was created by the Gavin's Point

This tract will supplement a 160-acre tract previously designated by the army engineers for Scout activity.

for SMA Banquet

Theme of the junior-senior banquet at St. Mary's academy Saturday evening was "Gateway to the Aurora Gorge". A large midnight sun, made with broken mirrors mounted on a paper form, was flanked by ice bergs and polar bears. Snowflakes filled the overhead sky. The two serving booths were named Golden Nugget Bar and Aurora Gorge Pavillion.

Junior-Senior Affair Held at Chambers-

CHAMBERS—The annual junior-senior banquet for the Chambers high school was held Saturday evening at the American Legion hall. Theme: "Candyland" On the program were: Loren Walter, Bill Young, Dorine Gleed, Karen Kruse, Carol Tracy, Irene Brown, Supt. Hopkins, Connie Werner. Master of ceremonies was Brethren church. Burial was in carnation boutonnieres. A prom followed the banquet.

Ewing Juniors

EWING— The Ewing high school junior-senior bansuet was held Tuesday evening, April 30. Theme of the affair: "Moonlight and Roses". Bob Welke was toastmaster. On the program were Sandra Shrader Dennis Scheer Russell

Napier, Linda Tuttle, Larry Larson, Patricia Wright, Ray Turner, Supt. L. M. Carter. Dancing formed entertainment.

Scout Group Goes

ATKINSON-Friday afternoon, Larry Martens, who is a District Scout executive, took Charles Sweet, Marion Mlinar and Robert Henning, who are scouts of Atkinson troop 180, to Fremont to attend a citizens now conference. Around 240 boys attended the meeting which included a banquet Saturday evening in St. Patrick's auditorium. They came home Sunday evening. REED IS YOUNGEST

ORCHARD — R. R. ("Bob") Reed, who will be 80 Friday, is the oldest member of the Antelope Saddle club. He will be honored on his birthday anniver-The group cleaned the flower beds and set out roses, lilacs and been labelled the "youngest" member of the club. Bob participates in all the club activities.

CARS DAMAGED

A car driven by Forrest D. Riley, pulling away from the curb near the corner of Third and Douglas, struck a machine being driven by Mrs. Marleen M. the Parks machine, was hurt slightly. Cars were dented.

FINDS BALLOONS

CHAMBERS- Mrs. Paul Lidgett, living three miles southeast The Daughters of Zion are of Chambers, reported finding Ralph Opfer, moving to California, said 60 letters had been reand rummage sale to be held balloons bore advertisements of a

TWO SECTIONS

Sixteen Pages