Dairy Princess Is Sought in State

Ben Vidricksen, manager of the Harding Creamery on O'Neill, has been appointed chairman of Holt county for "June dairy month" activities.

One of the big statewide activities will be the Nebraska dairy princess contest. Every eligible Nebraska girl should be interested in entering this big contest, Mr. Vidricksen said.

Basic requirements:

1. She shall have been a bona-fide resident of Nebraska for at least one year.
2. She must have a dairy farm background, but it is not required that she be a farm resident. By "dairy farm," farming operation is intended where part of the livelihood is obtained from the sale of milk or cream.
3. She shall be between the ages of 17 and 22 at the time of entering the contest and shall have finished high school by the end of the current school term.
4. She must be single, never have been married, and must not be a professional model.

Contestants will be judged on the basis of interview, beauty, personality, background, and ability to speak and meet the public. District elimination contests will be held in some areas.

The girl selected as the Nebraska dairy princess at the state contest in Beatrice June 21, will receive a $250 scholarship,

Costumes Compel Attention at Meet

Madison county Eight and Forty Salon partners entertained the partners of Valley County salon of Ord, Oconto, Burwell and Greeley at a dinner held in the American Legion club in O'Neill on Thursday evening, May 21.

Fourteen Madison county salon partners from Pierce, Stanton and Norfolk traveled by chartered bus from Norfolk arriving in O'Neill at 6:30 p. m. they were greeted by the local hostesses attired in old-fashioned or hard-time costumes, complete with band music furnished by a local "Combo" under the direction of Jim Reynoldson. The partners emerged from the bus to the music of "Hail, Hail, the Gang's all here". Passers-by stared wide-eyed at the spectacular array of costumes. It was evident that many trunks and attics had been ransacked to uncover some of the costumes revealed.

Valley County Salon partners arriving later in station wagons likewise were attired and hilariously greeted.

Prizes were awarded by the hostesses for the best costumes. Judging of the Valley salon partners was done by the partners of Madison County salon. Their selection: Mrs. Albert Larson of Burwell, attired in a regal, floor-length, maternity dress of early-day vintage. Valley County salon selected Miss Emmalyr McKinley of Stanton as the winner from Madison County salon. Miss MacKinley wore her mother's bridesmaid's gown of pale blue with the white slippers that were her mother's wedding shoes. 59 years old. Lack of space precluded further description of individual costumes.

Additional prizes were awarded Mrs. William Cox and Mrs. C. C. Becker, both of Pierce; Mrs. Lucretia Harsch, Mrs. Bernice Bussman, Mrs. A. L. Maier and Mrs. Ernie Stogelman, all of Norfolk; Mrs. Floyd Zikmund and Mrs. C. J. Mortenson both of Ord; Mrs. James Boblitz of Oconto, and Miss Daisy Robinson of Stanton.
