Marjorie Weichman, Vincent Rotherham Weds at Stuart

Miss Marjorie Weichman, daughter of Mrs. Callista Weichman of Stuart, and Vincent Rotherham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rotherham, were united in marriage Saturday, May 4, at St. Boniface Catholic church in Stuart. Rev. A. J. Paschang, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which was a 10 a.m. mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Milton Weichman of Stuart, appeared in a waltz-length lace gown with sabrina neckline and princess bodice. The long sleeves ended in points. Rows of ruffles fell in tiers in the back of the bouffant skirt. Her finger tip veil was caught by a beaded crown trimmed with lace and tiny seed pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses. She wore a double strand of pearls and matching earrings.

Mrs. Frank Hamik, jr., of Lincoln, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Bernadine Rotherham, of Lincoln, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Both wore identical navy crystaletta gowns with polka dots. They wore street length. Their colonial bouquets were of white carnations and their accessories were also white.

The bridegroom was attired in a navy suit and wore a white carnation boutonniere.

Jerry Rotherham of Ewing served as his brother's best man. Rolland Kunz of Stuart was usher.

A reception from 2 until 5 p. m., was held at the Stuart auditorium. Mrs. Neil Hamilton of Stuart had charge of the guest book. Mrs. George Kohle, a sister of the bride, poured.

After a week's trip to Colorado, the couple will live in Ewing, where Mr. Rotherham and his brother own and operate the Texaco station.

Mrs. Rotherham is a graduate of Stuart high school. She is employed at the ASC office in O'Neill.
