

Former Druggist at Page Expires

PAGE—Funeral services for Ambrose H. Farnsworth, 82, were conducted Wednesday afternoon, May 15, at Badger, Ia., Lutheran church, Rev. Walter Wahl, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Farnsworth died suddenly Sunday morning, May 11. He had been in failing health for the past three years.

Burial was made at Ft. Dodge. The son of Mr. and Mrs. David Farnsworth, he was born at Dyrart, Ia., November 7, 1874, and came with his parents to Holt county in 1893. He was graduated from Ewing high school.

The Farnsworths were among the early settlers here, their homestead being four miles east and 1 1/2 miles south of Page.

Mr. Farnsworth was united in marriage with Miss Jennie Rodgers in 1903. To this union three daughters and a son were born.

On May 11, 1926, he was married to Miss Gertrude Folvig of Badger, Ia.

Following education in pharmacy he received at Highland Park college, Des Moines, Ia., Mr. Farnsworth owned and operated a drug store in his home town of Page.

In 1942 they moved to Badger where he operated a drug store until his retirement in 1951. He had received his 50-year membership certificate from the Iowa Pharmaceutical association.
