STUART—Miss Marilyn K. DeLosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan DeLosh of Stuart, was united in marriage to Glenn Sorensen of Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sorensen of Stetsonville, Wis., Saturday, May 18 at the Stuart Community church. Rev. D. D. Su officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 7:30 p. m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a nylon embroidered gown over satin. The hand clipped scalloped lace formed a high French neckline and fitted bodice. The long tapered sleeves were fastened with tiny pearl buttons. The voluminous skirt was fashioned with embroidered lace scallops, which fell to a shirred nylon ruffle. A heart shaped cap of satin, edged with seed pearls, held her waist length tulle veil. Her pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom. Her red rose bouquet was centered with a cymidium.

Miss Lorraine DeLosh, a sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Miss Lois Finch, also of Stuart, was a bridesmaid. They wore rose Capri ballerina length gowns with rounded necklines. The criss cross sashes were tied in large bows in the back. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations trimmed with silver flaked bows.

Bestman was Allen Sorensen of Bristow, a brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Kenneth Nelson of Bristow and Jed Robertson of Long Pine.

The Misses Karen Robertson of Long Pine and Marge Marcellus of O'Neill were candlelighters. Their Nile green Capri gowns had full skirts with cummerbunds and bateau necklines. They wore pink carnation wristlets.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore navy dresses with white accessories and matching corsages. The bride's grandmother wore a blue figured dress with blue accessories and white corsage.

Mrs. Mark Nelson accompanied Miss Karen Van Cleave, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly".

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Dewey Halligan of Stuart, presided. The Misses Sharon Marcellus of O'Neill and Carolyn Tams of Ewing served. Mrs. Edwin Engler baked and decorated the three-tiered cake. Miss Lorna Marcellus had charge of the gift table. Miss Lucille Mitchell had charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose a figured green daron full skirted dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Sorensen attended Stuart high school and Wayne State Teachers college. She and her husband are teachers. Mr. Sorensen attended Bristow high school and Wayne college. They will reside in Wayne.
