

Vogt-Neumiller Nuptials at Naper

NAPER—On Friday, May 24, at 2 p. m. at First Congregational church of Naper, Miss Shirley Ann Vogt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claus E. Vogt, became the bride of Paul M. Neumiller, son of Chris T. Neumiller. Rev. Bernard Saylor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Barbara Vogt and Marjo Schonebaum sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Ann Ludemann accompanied at the piano and also played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz-length gown of white satin and lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a double collar and long sleeves tapering to a point at the wrist. Pearls trimmed the crown effect veil of nylon tulle. She carried a bouquet of mums. She wore something old, new.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Darlene Vogt, sister of the bride, wore a waltz-length formal of orchid frosted net over taffeta. She wore a white half hat and carried a bouquet of white mums and small orchids.

Flower girl was Marcia Neumiller, niece of the bridegroom. She wore an orchid dress of nylon fashioned with a full skirt and ruffles with a large bow in the back. She carried a basket of rose petals.

The bridegroom was attired in gray suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Art Neumiller, twin brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. He wore a blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Gerald Kulm and Neal Windmeyer, cousins of the bridegroom, were ushers. They wore gray suits and carnation boutonnières. Joel Sies, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Naper auditorium.

The bride's mother wore an aqua blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Edward Vogt. She also cut and served the cake.

Phyllis Schock and Ann Ludemann had charge of the gift table.

Marjo Schonebaum and Barbara Vogt served the bride's table. Other servers were Joan Fuhrer, Myrna Gosch, and Isla Mae Ruda.

The bride is a graduate of Naper high school and has been teaching in the Naper and Atkinson communities for the past two years.

Mr. Neumiller is a graduate of Naper high school and has served two years in the army. At present, he is engaged in farming.
