Parents Reminded of Their Investment

Rev. Myers Speaks on Memorial Day

CHAMBERS—Memorial services were held Thursday afternoon, May 30, at the Golden Gate theatre under the direction of the American Legion post 320.

Music was furnished by a men's chorus, consisting of Stanley Lambert, Gene Dobbs, Tom Lambert, Harry Myers and Ray Hoffman with Mrs. Bernard Hoffman at the piano.

Rev. Harry Myers, pastor of Methodist church, gave the address. He reminded parents of the great investment they have in their children and asked what they were doing to assure these boys and girls that they would not have to go to war.

He quoted the scripture which says: "Love thy neighbor as thy self" and he reminded the audience that neighbors included those from other groups and other countries regardless of color or of skin.

"Only by loving our neighbor as ourselves will we bring a lasting peace," the speaker added.

Short services were also held at the cemetery.
