Mary K. Turner
Bride of New Yorker

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the setting for the wedding Saturday morning, June 1, when Miss Mary Kathryn Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of O'Neill, became the bride of William J. Kostic, son of Mrs. Anna Kostic of College Point, N. Y.

Rev. Francis Price, pastor of the Church of Epiphany in Emmet, officiated at the 10 o'clock double-ring ceremony. Gladioli, various flowers and candelabra decorated the altar.

Miss Alvara Ramm of Stuart, organist, accompanied Miss Sharon Murray and Gene Turner, who sang "Just for Today," "Mother Beloved" and "Ave Maria".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace over satin and tulle. The bodice had a sabrina neckline with brief sleeves and was trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins complimented with lace.

The skirt had a lace peacock overskirt forming a bustle effect in the back which fell over scalloped tiers of accordion pleated tulle forming a very bouffant effect. Her illusion veil was attached to a scalloped halo crown encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore lace mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, carnations and pink rosebuds.

Sisters of the bride, Miss Janice Turner, was matron-of-honor, and the Misses Donna Lou and Betty Jo Turner were bridesmaids. They wore identical aqua princess style, waltz-length gowns featuring round necklines and brief sleeves, accented with tiny bows. They wore crowns of matching daisies with nose veils and white gloves. They carried colonial bouquets of white daisies.

Dianne Ciccarelli of Eatontown, N. J., niece of the bridegroom, was the flowergirl. She wore a white dress of embroidered nylon, a crown hat of white straw and flowers and white gloves. She carried a basket of assorted flowers. Master Russel Derickson was the ringbearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white heart shaped pillow.

Peter Kostic of College Point, N. Y., was his brother's bestman, and Larry and Dick Cleary served as ushers. The bridegroom, his attendants and Mr. Turner wore tuxedo suits of white jackets and black trousers. They wore white carnation boutonnières with black handkerchiefs.

Mrs. Anna Kostic, mother of the bridegroom, appeared in a dress of blue lace with light blue accessories and Mrs. Turner wore a redingote styled dress in lavender print with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A dinner for 20 guests was held at The Town House and reception from 2 to 5 o'clock was held at the home of the bride. A three-tier square cake centered the bride's table flanked by white tapers.

Miss Bette Mahony served punch, Miss Lou Moss of Omaha poured coffee, Mrs. Tom Clark cut the cake, Mrs. Wayne Pollock of Ewing registered the guests, and Miss Patricia Bauer of Ewing took care of the gifts.

Mrs. Kostic was graduated from St. Mary's academy and has been employed at the Holt County Independent. Mr. Kostic has served four years in the air force and will be employed by the S & H Screen Co. as silk screener in College Point.

The couple expect to leave today (Thursday) by plane for eastern states and to College Point, N. Y., where they will make their home.

REPRESENTATIVE COMING

A social security representative will be at the courthouse assembly room here Thursday, June 6, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., a spokesman for the administration announced.
