

Miss Nancy Baker, Bruce Rehberg Wed Sunday at Neligh

NELIGH — Baskets of white daisies and gladioli decorated the Neligh Methodist church Sunday, June 16 at 2 p.m. when Miss Nancy Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Baker of Neligh, and Bruce Rehberg, formerly of O'Neill, son of Mrs. Hazel Rehberg of Lincoln, were united in marriage. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Copley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown whose bodice was lace over satin coming to points in front and back below the waistline. The sweetheart neck was outlined in sequins and buttoned down the entire back. The skirt featured double net over satin which ended in a cathedral train. The lace in the outer net followed the bodice line. The sleeves tapered to points over her hands. Her fingertip veil fell in double folds from a straight crown, which was edged in matching lace. She carried red roses with white satin pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. W. M. Lentz of Hopkinsville, Ky., was matron of honor. She wore a pink tulle and lace gown in alternating panels which was on princess lines, with fullness centered in the back.

Miss Rhea Perdeu was bridesmaid. She wore a blue lace over taffeta gown in bouffant styling. Both attendants had bouquets of white carnations and white streamers. They had matching headbands of white daisies.

Robert Whitmer of Orchard was bestman. Ushers were Kenneth Colson of Royal and Gerald Holm of Royal. The groomsmen were Eldon Schacht of Orchard.

Bill Parsons accompanied Miss Liane Gillespie who sang "Because". A reception followed in the church basement. Miss Louella Colman had charge of the guest book and the Misses Phyllis Pilger and Marlene Jones took care of the gifts.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a black princess styled dress with white accessories and a red rose corsage.

Mrs. Rehberg is a graduate of Neligh high school, class of 1957. Mr. Rehberg is a graduate of Royal high school and attended Wayne State Teachers' college and the University of Nebraska. He was formerly employed at The Frontier.

Sandra Ann Harper, Jim D. Jarman Exchange Vows

Miss Sandra Ann Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper of Omaha, and Jim D. Jarman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jarman of Chambers, were united in marriage at 10 a. m., Saturday, June 15. Father Kempker officiated at the double-ring ceremony at St. Pius X Catholic church in Omaha.

Miss Harper, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white nylon organza and Venice lace over nylon net and Skinners satin. The fitted bodice, buttoned at the back, featured an oval neckline banded in Venice lace in a flower motif. Brief shirred sleeves repeated the lace trim. Long gauntlets were crushed to a point at the wrists. The bouffant organza skirt, shirred very full at the waist and worn over hoop petticoats, featured a chapel sweep train and repeated the lace of the neckline as an outline for shirred side panniers. The lace continued at the back to the hemline. The bride's bouquet was of pink and white roses.

Miss Jeanette Harper was her sister's maid-of-honor. Miss Pat Sullivan, also of Omaha, acted as bridesmaid. They wore identical sheath gowns of pink linen, fashioned with tulle cummerbunds. They carried bouquets of pink tea roses with pink streamers.

Gene Adams of Chambers was bestman. Groomsman was Bob Mostek of St. Paul. Duane Grosnicklaus of Bartlett, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ralph Adams of Chambers were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. The mother of the groom wore a rose lace dress with white accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a 12-o'clock dinner for close friends and relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with four-tier wedding cake, pink tapers and roses.

A 2:30 o'clock reception was held for 80 guests. Miss Carolyn Wintermote of Chambers had charge of the guest book. Miss Ellen Corkle of O'Neill poured punch.

After a wedding trip of Minnesota, the couple will make their home in Omaha.

The bride graduated from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill in 1955, attended St. Mary's college in Omaha and is employed as a secretary.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Chambers high school and is employed in Omaha.
