

Miss Vicki Hutton
Feted in Shower

INMAN—A miscellaneous shower was held at the Methodist church annex on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Vicki Sue Hutton, who is to be married Saturday, July 13, to Warren Webster of Omaha. The program was based on the theme, "This Is Your Life" which was concluded with a mock wedding.

Scenes were acted out by Miss Hutton's friends. After she opened her gifts, refreshments were served by the committee.

Helen C. Winchell,
Edward Pavel Wed

Miss Helen C. Winchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Winchell, and Edward Pavel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pavel of near Ewing, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's Catholic church Wednesday, July 3 at 10 a. m. by Rev. Robert Duffy. The double ring ceremony took place before altars decorated with baskets of gladioli and shasta daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in an embroidered lace gown over satin. The lace bodice had matching long sleeves, which came to points over the wrists. The nylon net bouffant skirt featured an overskirt of lace which matched the bodice and was scalloped. The Peter Pan collar was edged in matching lace and tiny buttons went from the collar to the waist. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught by a half hat of lace that matched the bodice. It was encircled by a band with tiny iridescent beads. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white rose buds.

Her sister, Mrs. Thomas Clark, was matron of honor. She appeared in a pink embroidered nylon lace gown with a nylon taffeta cummerbund that ended in the back with two full streamers that fell to the hemline. The bodice had tiny appliqued flowers with sequin centers and a net insert at the neckline. The skirt was full and ballerina length. She had a wreath of daisies on her head and carried matching daisies.

The bestman was Richard Wilkinson of Chambers. Ushers were Thomas Clark and Robert Leiswald of Chambers.

Miss Patricia Mullen sang "On This Day" and "Mother Beloved", accompanied by Miss Alvira Ramm of Stuart.

A dinner followed at the Town House for the immediate families and a reception was held at the Winchell home from 2 to 4 p. m. After a short wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will live in O'Neill, where the bridegroom is a carpenter with his father. For traveling Mrs. Pavel chose a beige linen dress with a matching short sleeve sweater and beige accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and is employed at Consumers' PPD. The bridegroom attended Chambers high school.
