

Miss Marian Kimm,
Paul Moseman, Jr.,
in Iowa Nuptials

Before an altar decorated with palms, baskets of gladoli and daisies and candelabra, Miss Marian Kimm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Kimm of Norway, Ia., was united in marriage to Paul Moseman, Jr., of Cedar Rapids, Ia., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moseman, sr., of O'Neill. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jordan Jacobson at Trinity Lutheran church in Norway, Saturday, July 6, at 7:30 p. m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of airy tulle and schiffli embroidery, which formed and overskirt finished in a rose point edge. The beffant underskirt was worn over hoops. It featured a fitted bodice, short sleeves and sabrina neckline with sequin trim. Her elbow length illusion veil was caught by a headpiece of lace and seed pod trim. The beffant carried gladoli, yellow roses and ivy greenery.

Mrs. Gerald Stain of Sterling, Ill., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Another sister, Miss Evelyn Kimm of Cedar Rapids, Ia., was bridesmaid. Little Miss Jane Borg of Newhall, Ia., was flowergirl. Master Douglas Kimm of Norway, Ia., a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The attendants appeared in white organza gowns embroidered with pale green neckline accented with embroidered scallops and short shirred sleeves. The fitted bodice came to a V on the full gathered ballerina skirts. The hems were accented with scallops of matching embroidery. They wore matching green hats of Swiss braid, satin ribbon encircling the crowns and ending in back streamers. They carried white daisies with yellow centers and ivy.

The bestman was Clarence Diekey of Milwaukee, Wis. The groomsmen were William Blackman of Toddville, Ia. Ushers were Edwin Kimm of Norway, Ia., a brother of the bride, John Berigan of O'Neill and Marvin Finster of Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Mrs. Edwin Kimm of Norway, organist, accompanied Mrs. Morgan of Cedar Rapids, Ia.

A reception followed in the church parlors for 125 guests. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Albert Bowler, cut the cake. Miss Carolyn Moseman of Omaha the bridegroom's sister, poured. Mrs. Harold Bergen of Norway had charge of the punch. Miss Dorothy Nolte of Watsons and Mrs. Ralph Schulte of Norway assisted.

Miss Marion Moseman, a sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 1508 Washington Ave., Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Church Storage
Will be Converted into Rest Room

EWING — Mrs. James Tinsley conducted the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service when the group met at the parlors of the Methodist church Wednesday, July 3. Nineteen members and three guests were present.

Mrs. J. L. Pruden opened the meeting with a reading. Mrs. Tinsley was in charge of devotions on the theme, "Strangers Within the Gates".

Mrs. Henry Fleming reported that bazaar and pillow case materials have been ordered and will be turned over to members upon arrival. Letters were read pertaining to the meeting at Lincoln in August and another to be held at Inman Friday, July 12.

Mrs. S. E. Borden reported to the group that the church board would like to have the society dispose of tables stored in the south room of the basement in order to make room for the lounge and rest rooms. It was decided to sell two of the tables and place the other on the church lawn to be used for picnics and outdoor recreation.

Mrs. Fleming invited all members to attend the office meeting in August which will be called by the president. Mrs. Pruden made a report on the prices quoted on tile for the basement floor.

Wednesday, July 17 is the date set for the program committee to meet at the home of Mrs. Pruden to make out new year books. Other members of the committee are Mesdames L. A. Hobbs, Jessie Angus, S. E. Borden, Anna Pollock and Ben Larsen.

Next meeting will be a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon with Mrs. John Warner serving the drink. Invitations will be extended to all women who are not members.
