It's that time of year . . . salad time. Whether you're a devotee of indoor eating year round, or one of those who literally enjoys the outdoors on a warm, feathery night, salads always have a place on the menu. BEAN WALDORF will be a most welcome addition to any planning. It's a great idea, and simply made with the help of a convenient can of pork and beans with tomato sauce with chopped or sliced tart apples. Extra crunch comes from chopped celery. BEAN WALDORF marries well with any meat, hot from the charcoal cooker, or cold sliced leftover roast. It's a natural for buffets, patio parties and even carries well for a new touch for the beach party or woodland picnic. So as you plan for the next outing, consider this crunchy, colorful
