24. All protests must be filed in writing with the Secretary during the Fair, and same will be acted upon at the first meeting of the Board of Directors.
25. All animals must be exhibited at such time and place as the superintendent may direct.
26. The annual meeting will be the first Saturday after the first day of November.

SUPERINTENDENTS

The Superintendents are required to take charge of all articles belonging to their department, on their arrival on the grounds and see that they are in the proper places.

Superintendents must be on the grounds early in the morning of each day of the Fair to assist exhibitors in ticketing and arranging the articles, and shall appoint the awarding committees in the respective classes under the direction and consent of the Board of Directors and report them at one and not later than Wednesday to the Secretary.

POLICE REGULATIONS

The President shall have charge of the grounds and it shall be his duty to assign the police force, provided by the Village of Chambers, their respective duties, including gate keepers. All persons employed shall be sworn conservators of the peace, and it shall be their duty to arrest any persons creating any disturbance or violating any rules of the Society.

Anyone entering the grounds clandestinely shall be arrested. No intoxicating drinks shall be sold or drunk on the grounds. Any person found intoxicated will be dealt with according to law.

Stock, Sport Car Races Scheduled

LINCOLN—For the first time since the days of Speedway Stars Gus Schrader and Emory Collins, big car races will be one of highlights of the labor day program at the Nebraska State Fair, Secretary Edwin Schultz has announced.

Big car and stock car races will be run a total of four afternoons during the fair, August 31 - September 6, Schultz said.

In addition to the labor day meet big cars will race in Sunday afternoon, September 1, and Thursday afternoon, September 5. The races will be under the sanction of the International Motor Contest association, and some of the country's best-known drivers will be competing for national championship points, as well as for trophies and increased cash purses.

The stock car race, also under IMCSA sanction, has been billed as the "Nebraska International" and will be run on Friday afternoon, September 6. It will be a 200-lap, 100-mile affair with foreign and American sports cars competing with standard stocks.

In addition to the auto races, an auto thrill show produced by the Trans-World Auto Daredevils has been scheduled for Friday night. Climax of the final night's program will be a fireworks display.

Lee Company Will Present Pants

The H. D. Lee Company, makers of Lee cowboy pants, will present two pair of cowboy pants at the fair.

FIRST, no-time bulldogging
FIRST, no-time calf roping.
