Hope Marie Condon Bride on Coast

In nuptial rites conducted Sunday afternoon, September 1, in St. Gregory's Roman Catholic church, Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Hope Marie Condon became the bride of Ludlow Hall Rathbone.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Edward Joseph Condon of New York City, formerly of O'Neill, and the late Mr. Condon. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gordon Boone Scott of Westhampton Beach, Long Island, N.Y., and Norwood Rathbone of Westport, Conn.

Rev. Daniel Johnson officiated in the presence of the families and a few intimate friends.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gordon Laughlin followed.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Michael A. Condon. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward J. Condon, was matron-of-honor.

R. Gordon Laughlin was the bestman. The bride is with the Los Angeles office of Young & Rubicam, an advertising agency. She is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, O'Neill.

Mr. Rathbone attended Pomfret school and was graduated from Lehigh university in 1952. He is a member of Sigma Nu. He is finishing studies for a master of science degree at the University of Southern California.

Mr. Rathbone served as a lieutenant in the air force in Korea. The bride appeared in a ballroom-length gown of beige silk organza and a short tulle veil attached to a wreath of flowers. She carried a bouquet of cream colored orchids.

Mr. Rathbone's mother is the former Miss Elizabeth L. Hall, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ludlow Hall of New York and a cousin of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Condon, all of New York.

Following the death of Mr. Condon, a New York City police officer, Mrs. Condon brought the family to O'Neill where the bride, her brother and sisters were reared. The family left about three years ago.
