Cardinals Spoil Croton Win Chart

Clean 28-Game Slate Snapped, 14-13

A 28-game win streak in eight-man grid circles was abruptly broken here Thursday night for the visiting Croton Warriors. The St. Mary's academy Cardinals rose to necessary heights to nick Croton, 14-13, on a damp Carney park grid. The Warriors came to town with a perfect record, never having been defeated in four seasons of eight-man play. Moreover, it was a farewell to eight-man football because the Warriors are switching this week to 11-man ball and later in the season will oppose Ewing. The Cardinal kids completely dominated the game, stacking up 221 yards rushing compared to Croton's 57. SMA chalked up 12 first downs; Croton two. Five times during the evening St. Mary's defenders spilled Warrior ball carriers behind the line of scrimmage, recovered one Croton fumble and blocked one Warrior kick. Elwin Hamps, 185-pound sophomore, twice broke loose to score on runs of 31 and 26 yards. Croton entered the game minus two regulars and were star-gazing relative to their 11-man campaign. They appeared to shrug off the St. Mary's contest as a contract formality, but the boom was lowered by the Scarlet. St. Mary's moved the ball well on the ground. The Cards scored on a series of five plays the first time in possession. Jim McGinn bounded across from eight yards out and Tom Donohoe added the extra point. Moments later Jim Enright recovered a fumble on Croton's 30, but the Cards failed to score when the Warrior line tightened. Later St. Mary's put together a drive starting on the Cards' own 11. In four first downs they marched to the Croton 10 where two successive five-yard penalties halted the drive. St. Mary's led 7-0 at the half. SMA took the second half kickoff and marched 55 yards in seven plays, springing McGinn for the TD. McGinn also added the crucial point. After Croton scored its second touchdown, SMA began to roll again, piling up four first downs and 56 yards. The drive fell short by inches. McGinn carried 15 times for a net gain of 94 yards. Donohoe carried 11 times for 33 yards. Bill Craig rambled six times, picking up 27 yards, and Ron Clark racked up 67 yards in seven tries. Donohoe hit Larry Tomlinson on a TD, but the play was nullified by an off-side. The Cards got through the evening without a fumble. Defensive play of Bruce Weier, Jim Enright, Jim Murphy, Larry Denno, Gerold Godel and Jim McGinn looked good. Tonight (Thursday) the Cards will be entertaining the Keba Paha county Indians (Springview) on the Carney park field.
