

Miss Fuhrer . . . 10 years ago she won nationwide attention from ABC's Ted Malone.—The Frontier Photo.

Donna Is 25 Now --and Still Smiles!

George F. Jonas Dies at Atkinson

Funeral Services Will Be Held Friday

ATKINSON—Funeral services for George F. Jonas, 70, a life long resident of this community, will be conducted at 10 a. m., Friday, September 27, at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Rev. Robert Morocco will officiate.

Mr. Jonas died Tuesday evening, September 24, in Atkinson Memorial hospital. He was admitted to the hospital a half-day before his death.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. Rosary will be recited tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock at the chapel at the Seger funeral home.

Pallbearers will be Vere Kaplan, Clarence Greig, Ed Dvorak, Fred Niebauer and Joseph Disthaup.

The late Mr. Jonas was born July 6, 1887, at Atkinson, a son of the late George Jonas and Elizabeth Maras Jonas.

He farmed for many years southwest of Atkinson and never married. In recent years he made his home with his brother, Charles, four miles southwest of Atkinson.

Survivors include: Brother—Charles of Atkinson; sisters—Mrs. May Wesley of Butte; Mrs. Frances Nelson of Des Moines, Ia., and Mrs. Antonette Prettyman of Des Moines.

Prairie Chickens to Be Studied

An estimated 70 game commissioners, workers and specialists from states ranging from Ohio to Utah will be in Holt county today (Thursday) studying habitat of prairie chickens.

There will be a coffee session at 10:30 a. m., at an O'Neill restaurant followed by a tour of test grounds and areas where prairie chickens are thriving in Holt.

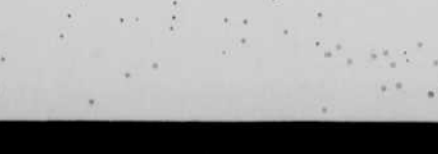

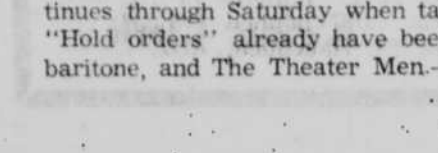

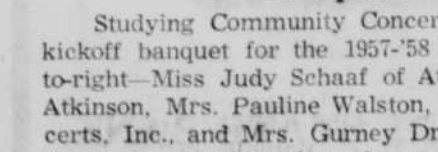

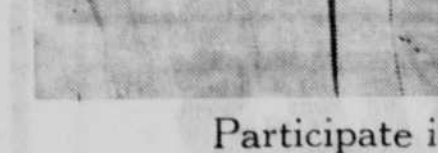

States represented include Montana, Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and others.

The group will gather for a dinner tonight.

LYNCH—Mrs. Gladys Davis has been on the sick list the past week. She is staying with her sister, Mrs. Bertha Bare.

Donna . . . the mouth controls the paint brush.—The Frontier Photo.

'Ed' Dexter, Ill 5 Years, Succumbs

Well-Known Rancher in Amelia Locality Came to Holt in '05

AMELIA—Stephen Edward Dexter, 75, well-known southwestern Holt county rancher who lived many years nine miles south of here, died Saturday, September 21, in Atkinson Memorial hospital.

Mr. Dexter, best-known as "Ed" had been in failing health five years. During the past two years he was seriously ill and his condition was critical most of the past month.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m., Monday, September 23, at the Methodist church here with Rev. Harold Bonath, church pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Chambers cemetery under the direction of Biglin's.

Pallbearers were Lawrence Westover, William Schipman, Phillip Frost, Clyde Burge, Louis Burgett and John Blair.

Mrs. Lela Burgett and Mrs. Clyde Burge had charge of the flowers. Those who sang were Gene Dobbs, Mrs. Bernard Hoffman, Mrs. Ernest Durre, jr., and Ray Hoffman, accompanied by Mrs. Elwyn Robertson.

Mr. Dexter was born at Southbury, Conn., the son of Stephen Hinsdale Dexter and Edna Morgan Dexter on July 31, 1882. He came to Holt county with his brother as a homesteader in 1905.

They came from Clarke where their father was a carpenter.

On March 5, 1908 Edward was united in marriage to Elizabeth Gumb of O'Neill. They became the parents of two children. He was a rancher nine miles south of Amelia and was well-known in the Sandhills Cattle association.

Many people from a distance attended the funeral which was held in Wyoming township, he held the position of road overseer and justice of the peace and was active in community affairs.

Survivors include: Widow—Elizabeth; son, Arthur E. Dexter of Moorhead, S. D.; daughter, Mrs. Raymond (Edna) Bly of Amelia; brothers—Newton of David City and W. T. of Amelia; sisters—Miss Beulah and Miss Jennie, both of Clarke; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

On September 9, 1888 he married Mary Spuhler of Chambers here. She died on December 13, 1943.

The homestead was about a mile northeast of Charlie Peterson's ranch. He remained there five years.

In 1893 he leased Indian land for three years in Oklahoma, six months before the famous Indian strip was opened. His place was about 80 rods from the Indian

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency in the Southern California area.

"Those kids aren't tough; they just think they are. Those gangs will do real bodily harm or occasionally kill a member of a rival gang."

"I've walked into a group of them, they look you over, challenge you.

More Surgery
Lloyd Godel (above), driver of one of the cars early Sunday, September 15, in which he and Gerald Fahrenholz of Ewing were critically injured, this week submitted to leg surgery. He is in St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha where last week he underwent chest surgery. Both Godel and Fahrenholz will recover. A fund drive is underway in O'Neill in behalf of Godel. The fund late Wednesday totaled $250. Contributions may be left at the police station.

WAYNE PAUL DIES
ELGIN—Funeral services were held here Wednesday for Wayne Paul, 47, formerly of Deliot. He died suddenly late Saturday. Survivors include: Widow—Veronica; daughter—Nancy of Elgin; son—Larry of Elgin.

Participate in Kickoff
Studying Community Concert literature at Monday evening's kickoff banquet for the 1957-58 membership drive here are: Left-to-right—Miss Judy Schaaf of Atkinson, Miss Mary Ann Siebert of Atkinson, Mrs. Pauline Walston, representative of Community Concerts, Inc., and Mrs. Gurney Drayton of Orchard. The drive continues through Saturday when talent for the season will be booked. "Hold orders" already have been placed on Todd Duncan, famous baritone, and The Theater Men.—The Frontier Photo.

THE FRONTIER

Mon. — Wed. — Sat.
9:30 — 9:55 A. M.

Volume 77.—Number 22.

THE FRONTIER

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, September 26, 1957.

To Help Establish Korea University

Rev. Basil M. Price, SJ, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Price of O'Neill, will pass through O'Neill on his way to Seoul, Korea, this weekend. Father Price has been assigned to the future Catholic university of Korea in Seoul, a work that has been assigned to the Wisconsin province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuit Fathers). At the present time, only a beginning has been made with the purchase of some property for the site of the university, and the Jesuit Fathers are making plans to finance the construction of the buildings.

There are in Seoul three Jesuits from the United States, one from Germany, and two Korean Jesuit priests. There are two young Koreans preparing themselves in the Jesuit seminary here in the United States, but many years of study will have to be spent before they will be able to return to Korea to assist with the work in the university. There are five other Korean boys who wish to enter the Society of Jesus and they are waiting to be accepted to the seminary.

Father Price will be in O'Neill from Saturday to Monday, September 28-30. He will leave O'Neill for San Francisco, Calif., and he hopes to set sail from this port in the middle of October.

On Sunday, September 29, Father Price will preach at all the masses in St. Patrick's church in O'Neill, and at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, there will be a departure ceremony in the church.

"All are invited to attend to beg the blessing of Almighty God on Father Price, for a successful journey, and for continued success in his future work in Seoul," according to the church pastor, Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan. This will be the first time such a ceremony has been conducted in O'Neill, Father O'Sullivan declared.

Three of the E. G. Prices' sons are priests: Father Basil, Rev. Peter Price, SJ, of Rosary Mission, S. D., and Rev. Francis Price, pastor of Church of the Epiphany at Emmet.

John Walter to Be 91-Years-Old

CHAMBERS—John Walter, sr., will be observing his 91st birthday anniversary Monday, September 30. Relatives have planned a family dinner Sunday, September 29, in his honor.

Mr. Walter was born September 30, 1866, at Neustadt, Ont., Can., a son of Jacob and Christina Walter. He was one of 14 children, which included seven boys and seven girls. Only four of the children still survive.

During his growing up days in Canada the family raised wheat, oats, barley and peas (the latter used for hog feed). Mr. Walter recalls the kids had their fill of apples, pears, plums and berries of all descriptions.

At the age of 19 he came to the United States and arrived in Emmet in 1885 by train. He proceeded to his brother's homestead by oxen. They had to walk beside the oxen, which were hitched to a wagon, because they encountered waist-deep water when they crossed Holt Creek. There was no bridge.

Supplies they carried included potatoes, flour and meat. When they arrived at the shanty, all they had to burn was a bunch of hay, which was twisted and burned and left very few ashes.

Mr. Walter was not old enough to file for a homestead, so he went to work in the Black Hills for a spell. While working on the railroad that ran from Buffalo Gap to Rapid City, he experienced an era of lawlessness. "It was every man for himself," he recalls.

Recalls Blizzard
When he returned to Holt and found no work. He "hired out" on a farm in Madison county. Within a year, he returned to Holt and worked on the Blaben ranch, located about 20 miles southwest of O'Neill. After six months, he filed for a homestead in 1887 but continued to work on the Blaben ranch. He recalls vividly the famous 1888 blizzard.

On September 9, 1888 he married Mary Spuhler of Chambers here. She died on December 13, 1943.

The homestead was about a mile northeast of Charlie Peterson's ranch. He remained there five years.

In 1893 he leased Indian land for three years in Oklahoma, six months before the famous Indian strip was opened. His place was about 80 rods from the Indian

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency in the Southern California area.

"Those kids aren't tough; they just think they are. Those gangs will do real bodily harm or occasionally kill a member of a rival gang."

"I've walked into a group of them, they look you over, challenge you.

Lohaus, Arbuthnot, Marcellus, Castle and Vernon . . . the show "had everything".

Onlooker at Opening of Oklahoma Strip

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency in the Southern California area.

"Those kids aren't tough; they just think they are. Those gangs will do real bodily harm or occasionally kill a member of a rival gang."

"I've walked into a group of them, they look you over, challenge you.

Homecoming for Wally

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency in the Southern California area.

"Those kids aren't tough; they just think they are. Those gangs will do real bodily harm or occasionally kill a member of a rival gang."

"I've walked into a group of them, they look you over, challenge you.

C.K. Henkel Dies at 83; Rites Friday

HOLT RESIDENT FOR 52 YEARS DIES IN ATKINSON HOSPITAL

ATKINSON—Christian K. Henkel, 83, a retired farmer who had resided many years in the Phoenix community, died Monday, September 23, at 8:30 p. m., in Atkinson Memorial hospital.

He had been a resident of Holt county 52 years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m., Friday, September 27, at St. John's Lutheran church here. Rev. Melvin Bloubaum of Bassett will officiate, and burial will be made in the Phoenix rural cemetery under the direction of the Seger funeral home.

The late Mr. Henkel was born December 18, 1873, at Clinton, Ia. His parents were August Henkel and Wilhelmine Winterberg Henkel.

He was reared in Iowa and May 10, 1898, at Odenbolt, Ia., he married Anna Sophia Marie Habenicht. They lived in Iowa for a time, and in 1905 came to Holt county from Odenbolt.

Pallbearers chosen are John Schwindt, Fritz Naber, Edward Bauch, Rex Coburn, Carl Damero and William Obermire.

His wife, Anna, died March 26, 1956. He was also preceded in death by one son, Adolph, and by three daughters—Anna, Sophia and Marie.

The Henkel family farm is now owned and occupied by E. H. Chace.

Survivors include: Sons—Franz of Des Moines, Ia.; Albert of Ridgewater, Ia., and Christian of Massena, Ia.; daughters—Mrs. Harold (Augusta) Kirkland, Mrs. Fred (Alvina) Tesch and Mrs. Eugene (Elsie) Karr, all of Atkinson; 16 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; sister—Mrs. Anna Habenicht of Blairsburg, Ia.

Barthels Going to Reside at Pierre

CHAMBERS—Former Holt Supervisor Kenneth Barthel and family plan to make their home in Pierre, S.D., where Mr. Barthel is employed by the Western Construction company at the Oahe dam project.

The Barthels will sell their residence and personal property at public auction Wednesday, October 9.

Other Sales

Tuesday, October 1: Ed T. Campbell, executor of the estate of the late Mary Donlin, will offer a modern dwelling at auction, on the premises, 3:30 p. m., 620 East Everett st.; John R. Gallagher, attorney; Col. Wallace O'O'Neill, auctioneer.

Friday, October 4: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenz, living five miles east of Chambers, three miles south and half-mile east will offer their 320-acre improved farm, dairy herd, machinery and equipment; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer; October 5: A. L. Gibson sundries store at Ewing, equipment, fixtures, merchandising, evening sale; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer; Farmers State Bank of Ewing, clerk.

Tuesday, October 15: Zahradnick estate land, 480 acres, at referee's sale, 2 p. m., Holt county courthouse; John R. Gallagher of O'Neill, referee; William W. Griffin of O'Neill, attorney.

Clinic for Crippled Children Scheduled

Next extension clinic to be held in this area for crippled children will be at O'Neill public school Saturday, October 5. Clinic registration will begin at 7 a. m.

Because nine counties are served by this clinic, Holt county children should register early as an accommodation to those arriving later.

The clinic is for diagnosis, consultation, checkup and after care services for children now receiving treatment and will be conducted by Dwight W. Burney, M. D., of Omaha, attending orthopedist, and Robert H. Gregg, M. D., of Omaha, pediatrician.

Anna Brown Sees Little Rock Affair

Mrs. Anna Brown has returned from a four-day stay in Little Rock where she attended the national convention of the Veterans of the Spanish-American war.

In Little Rock she witnessed some of the excitement connected with the school integration problem. She was interviewed on Wednesday's "Voice of the Frontier" program.

Guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. William Luben are her sister, Mrs. Nora McLane of Ogden, Utah, a niece and nephew, Major and Mrs. R. E. Manville of Tucson, Ariz., and nephew, Robert Luben of Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

Mr. Walter . . . to Holt shanty by oxen.

Jimmy Dorsey Band Pleases Fans Here

Music lovers in the O'Neill region heard the 17-piece orchestra of the late Jimmy Dorsey, under the direction of Lee Castle, Tuesday evening in two consecutive stage shows at the public school auditorium. The show was sponsored by the national guards.

The soloist, Julie Vernon, only 18, is a farm girl from Marshalltown, Ia.

Asked how she felt being a national success as a singer she smiled and said, "I have to pinch myself to believe my good fortune." She also stated a high school classmate had received wide acclaim as an actress, Jean Seberg, the "Saint Joan of Arc" star. They are very close friends.

"I started my career at 15 with Jan Garber's orchestra.

"Being in O'Neill tonight, makes me feel I'm home—the Midwest."

Castle, trained by the father of Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey, played first trumpet in Jimmy's organization for years.

The turnout was not as large as the sponsors expected, but the show more than lived up to expectations.

"The show had everything," declared Miss Ellen Lohaus, who attended with friends, Miss Cecelia Arbuthnot and Miss Sharon Marcellus, who pressed for autographs.

Resigns Post—Miss Mary Frances Vitt left Tuesday for Tucson, Ariz., where she will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vitt. She resigned her position as cashier at the REA office where she has been employed for the past five years.

More Surgery

Lloyd Godel (above), driver of one of the cars early Sunday, September 15, in which he and Gerald Fahrenholz of Ewing were critically injured, this week submitted to leg surgery. He is in St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha where last week he underwent chest surgery. Both Godel and Fahrenholz will recover. A fund drive is underway in O'Neill in behalf of Godel. The fund late Wednesday totaled $250. Contributions may be left at the police station.

Wayne Paul Dies

ELGIN—Funeral services were held here Wednesday for Wayne Paul, 47, formerly of Deliot. He died suddenly late Saturday. Survivors include: Widow—Veronica; daughter—Nancy of Elgin; son—Larry of Elgin.

Participate in Kickoff

Studying Community Concert literature at Monday evening's kickoff banquet for the 1957-58 membership drive here are: Left-to-right—Miss Judy Schaaf of Atkinson, Miss Mary Ann Siebert of Atkinson, Mrs. Pauline Walston, representative of Community Concerts, Inc., and Mrs. Gurney Drayton of Orchard. The drive continues through Saturday when talent for the season will be booked. "Hold orders" already have been placed on Todd Duncan, famous baritone, and The Theater Men.—The Frontier Photo.

Homecoming for Wally

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Homecoming for Wally

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency in the Southern California area.

"Those kids aren't tough; they just think they are. Those gangs will do real bodily harm or occasionally kill a member of a rival gang."

"I've walked into a group of them, they look you over, challenge you.

Homecoming for Wally

Wally Mullen of West Los Angeles, Calif., reached town Thursday—his first return to O'Neill in 41 years. He is visiting his brother, Leo Mullen, and Mrs. Mullen and will depart Sunday.

Wally, 66, was reared here. When he left O'Neill he had no idea whatsoever of absenting himself so long.

The Mullen brothers' parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mullen, who came to O'Neill in the early days from Canada. Mr. Mullen was a carpenter. They became the parents of five children. One of the sons, Dr. L. A. of Detroit, Mich., is dead. Two daughters in the family are Mrs. Marion Rourke of Sioux Falls, S.D., and Mrs. Dolores Patton of Lincoln.

Wally's son L/Lt. Robert, died in action in the Pacific area during World War II. He was a marine combat pilot and his body was never recovered. Another son, Richard, is a writer for Columbia Broadcasting System in New York City. Wally's wife, Helen, died several years ago.

Wally is known as "Mickey Mullen on the coast where he is a building contractor.

Back in 1917 Uncle Sam beckoned him when the Germans were acting tough. Wally went into the air corps as an enlisted man and emerged an officer.

Talk turned to juvenile delinquency