Cards Win Thriller from Sacred Heart

Flag Nullifies Series of Touchdowns

In a game brimming with excitement from the spectator's viewpoint, the St. Mary's academy Cardinals Thursday night came from behind to defeat the Sacred Heart Knights of Norfolk, 20-19. The game was played at Norfolk.

Gary Svoboda broke loose for the Knights on the fourth play of the game and raced 38 yards for a touchdown. Tom Delay added the point and the Cards trailed, 0-7—the first deficit of the season.

They plays later Larry Tomlinson took a short pass from Tom Donohoe and raced 45 yards to score for SMA. Donohoe added the point. The O'Neill parochials marshalled another drive before the period ended and Donohoe crashed over from the 31 two. A penalty cost the extra point.

Tomlinson took a slick 30-yard flip from Bill Craig and rambled 20 yards to the endzone but the play was nullified by a penalty. Donohoe then fired a long one to Gary Holly who let it slip off his fingertips. The Cards punted for the first time this season.

Svoboda was sprung again for the Norfolkians to score. Jim Murphy blocked Sacred Heart's PAT, and the ball game was deadlocked 13-13.

Flags fluttered frequently as the Cards tried their ground game. With eight seconds remaining in the half, Craig hit Donohoe who raced 60 yards untouched, but the flag spoiled the effort.

Within four plays after the third quarter began, the Cards finally changed the scoreboard. Gene Schneider danced 38 yards down the sidelines to put the Cards ahead, 20-13.

The Knights applied pressure and gained a first down on the SMA one and the Cards gallantly held, taking over on the one-foot stripe.

In the fourth the Knights got to the SMA five, but the Norfolkians were obliged to relinquish on the SMA eight.

Later a SMA fumble was recovered by the Knights. Svoboda scored, making it 20-19. The Knights' try for point to tie it up was one foot short.

Weier pounced on a SH kick and Holly pirated a pass to short-stop further Norfolk threats. Jim McGinn was sidelined with an ankle injury suffered earlier and Jim Enright had to leave in the first quarter. Tomlinson and Weier looked great up front defensively.

The Cards go to Naper Friday night.

Eagles Absorb Loss at Ainsworth

Ainsworth Bulldogs rolled to a 14-0 victory over the O'Neill high Eagles Friday night at Ainsworth.

First touchdown in the second period came as Ainsworth's full-back slanted off left tackle and galloped 30 yards.

With two minutes left in the game, O'Neill was obliged to crumple Friday night at Ainsworth. The Eagles' linebacker got possession of the moment the pigskin left Darold Dexter's foot. The enemy tucked it away and romped across.

Both points - after - touchdowns resulted from smashes through guard. Ronnie Smith was best for the Eagles.

The Eagles entertain the Neigh Warriors here next Wednesday. Neigh, like O'Neill, has a 1-4 record. The Warriors defeated Albion.
