Geraldine Rotherham Ivan Wright Wedded in October Rite

EWING—Miss Geraldine Rotherham and Ivan Wright were married 10:30 a.m., Saturday, October 12, at St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing. Rev. P. F. Bruke officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rotherham and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright, all of Ewing.

Robert Koenig of Lincoln was vocal soloist and A. E. Spittler was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale blue waltz-length taffeta gown with a nylon embroidered overskirt, sweetheart neckline and brief shirred sleeves. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings and a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet of white carnations and pink roses was carried on a prayer-book.

Miss Bernadine Rotherham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of pale rose waltz length taffeta with a nylon embroidered overskirt, round neckline and brief sleeves. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rotherham wore a dress of brown and Mrs. Wright, mother of the bridegroom, chose a navy blue dress. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents attended by one hundred friends and relatives. Miss Helen Rotherham of Lincoln and Miss Mary Ann Kall-hoff of O'Neill were in charge of the gift table and Miss Sharon Rotherham, the guest book.

The three-tier wedding cake with white and pink decorations was cut by Mrs. Robert Bartak. Miss Doris Ann Spahn poured. Others assisting with the serving were Ann Rotherham, Beverly Rotherham and Mary Lois Noffke.

After a wedding trip through the southern states, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be at home on a farm south of Ewing.

Mrs. Wright, a graduate of the Ewing high school in 1955, taught one year of school and this year has been employed as receptionist in an office in Lincoln. Mr. Wright has served two years in the army.
