Dorsey Weather on Gloomy Side

DORSEY — Weather has been and still is on the gloomy side. This area received weekend rain and snow which halted planting and combining. There is lots of feed in the fields in this community. The feed was too wet to harvest earlier and some of it still is doubtful if it will keep if harvested.

Other Dorsey News
Mr. and Mrs. E. Wiley were met in O'Neill Friday by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marston after they had spent a few days with their son and family, the Marvin Wileys, at Grand Island.

The supper bazaar to be held at Ash Grove Sunday evening was postponed until Sunday evening, November 24, due to the bad roads.

Lorelle Pickering, who is teaching near Omaha, made a hasty call on his folks during the weekend.

The Dorsey school is planning a program and sale of lunch Friday, November 22, at the school. It is hoped the flag and weatherman will cooperate and permit the students to hold the affair.

The Carson school held its social and program Tuesday, November 19. There was a nice program and baskets sold well. Sickness prevented several families from attending.

Harold Osborn and daughter and Gordon Barba and daughter were Creighton business callers Saturday.

Frank Ruzicka of Sioux City was a caller at home over the weekend of November 16-17. His folks were glad to see him as he hadn't been home for some time. Mr. and Mrs. B. Marstons are enjoying their new television which Reggie Pinkerman installed for them a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kilgore and family of Indiana visited with her folks, the E. B. Marstons, around the first of the month. Ernest Rosenkrans of Neligh has been helping at the Roger Rosenkrans farm the past week.
