

Atkinson, Stuart Land 3 Each on All-Holt Honor Grid Team

Holt county's "dream team"—a mythical aggregation assembled by the prep coaches in cooperation with The Frontier's sports department, offers everything. Atkinson high, losing only one game (to a class B power) landed three berths; Stuart, three; St. Mary's of O'Neill, two, and O'Neill, Ewing and Chambers, one each.

Like in previous years, competition on the honor team was intense for backfield slots and some juggling was needed in line positions to make the all-star team jell.

Six players won virtually unanimous ballots—Don Schmaderer of Stuart, Paul Focken of Atkinson, and Sonny Carl of Ewing, backs; Bruce Weier of St. Mary's, center; Duane Humphrey of Atkinson, end; and Larry Tomlinson of St. Mary's, end.

From there on it was a pitched battle and some coaches were obliged to revise their selections slightly to balance out this crew which ranges from a heavyweight to a lightweight in the backfield; from a 137-pound end to a ponderous guard to a ponderous end.

Participating in the balloting were: Coach Marvin Boesen of Atkinson, who faced three coaches in a draw the other two in action one or more times; Coach Don Templemeyer of St. Mary's, whose team breezed to an all-victorious season in eight-man circles; Coach Marv Miller of O'Neill, who played only one Holt foe but officiated in other games; Coach Cliff Hermance of Stuart; Coach Fritz Reifert of Ewing and Coach Bill Witte of Chambers.

All coaches were unanimous in expressing there was an abundance of backfield material. This situation, in effect, forced a transition of backs into line slots, thereby intensifying competition for line berths.

LARRY TOMLINSON, End—One of the best pass receivers in area, speed and quickness coupled with his bulk made him an ideal receiver. Tomlinson was a "vicious downfield blocker," said one of the ballots of this St. Mary's athlete. Another ballot declared: "A natural athlete, would be help to any team, well coordinated." Tomlinson is one of two juniors on this dream team.

DUANE HUMPHREY, End—"Best end of the lot," wrote one of the coaches. "This end has great hands, he's tough and outstanding on pass defense. He earned his second letter this year at Atkinson high. Humphrey is Solid blocker, giving his quarterback plenty of protection at all times. Landed berth on at least one all-star eight man all-star team.

DON SCHMADERER, Quarterback—One of the best backs to come out of this area. He built 869 yards in 127 carries for a 6.8 average, largely against bigger schools. Completed 68 percent of his passes, ran the line back and was especially dangerous on option play around end. He was Stuart's high scorer. Said Boesen's ballot: "Fine runner, fine defensive player, good passer and leader."

DANA BIGELOW, Halfback—Hard driver, could always be counted on for the three-yard plunges, four-year vet at Stuart, "A" student, class leader. Did Stuart's punting and specialized "up the middle" in ball carrying. He nipped out his teammate, Jerry Taylor, a junior, for this slot, also Ronnie Smith of O'Neill, a fleet sophomore. One ballot said Smith "belonged even though he is young, light and green."

PAUL FOCKEN, Halfback—He came into his own his senior year and played great ball on many occasions; important role in Atkinson's best season in many years. Passed, punted, captained and did most of the Bales' running. "Best blocker I saw all season," wrote one coach.

SONNY CARL, Fullback—"Standout on a mediocre Ewing team," declared one of the coaches. Averaged 10.7 yards in three games (the hurt ankle in opener and was used in line position to protect injury). Ewing won two or three games with Carl in backfield harness. Brilliant four-year grid record with the Tigers. Lethal blocker.

Templemeyer Back at Academy Helm

Knocks Pneumonia in Head After Siege

Now that Coach Don Templemeyer has successfully knocked in the head an attack of pneumonia, he has resumed drill chores for his 1957-58 St. Mary's academy basketball team. Templemeyer had to call on grads, Rev. Robert Duffy and others to pinch-hit in the boss department while he was bedfast for more than a week.

The Cards open Tuesday, December 3, against the Atkinson Bales on the Atkinson rink. Twenty-one boys are working out. The original squad of 35 was cut to speed pre-season practice. Templemeyer predicts his team will be hardpressed to match last year's 16-8 record. Lack of height will be the main factor on one side of the ledger, but potent Larry Tomlinson, a six footer, was a whiz as a soph last season. Other letterwinners are Gary Holly, Jim McGinn and Bill Craig.

Making strong bids for varsity berths are Lambert Belina, Gale Stevens, Larry Donohoe, Gene Schneider, Ronnie Clark, Jack Sullivan and Terry Hynes. Some height, however, is in the offing in underclassmen. Last season's reserve club, which posted a 14-1 record, will offer for varsity competition Chuck Froelich, Larry Mudloff, Bernie Kamphaus, Fred Snowdirt, Tom Higgins, Bill Hynes, Gale Boyle, John and Larry Wanser and Gene Jilg.

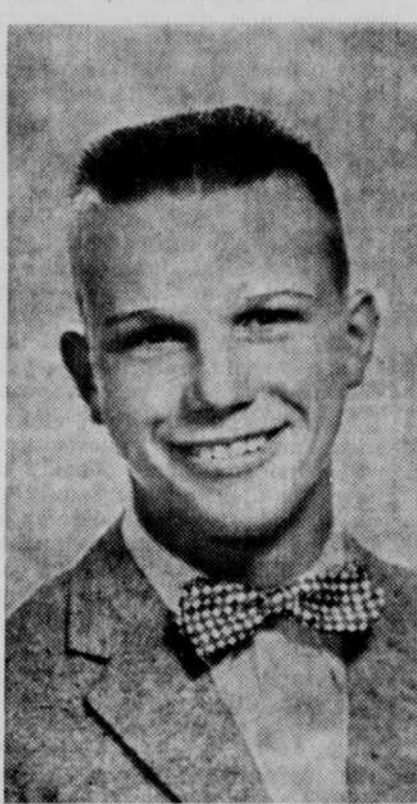

Jilg and Mudloff, however, until after midyear. Family season tickets are being offered for seven bucks per seat, featuring nine home games. Schedule: Dec. 3—Atkinson, there. Dec. 6—O'Neill, there. Dec. 9—Naper, here*. Dec. 13—Stuart, here. Dec. 20—St. Joe, there. Jan. 7—Lynch, here*. Jan. 10—Verdigre, here*. Jan. 13—Center, there. Jan. 17—Butte, here*. Jan. 31—Spencer, here*. Feb. 7—Niobrara, here*. Feb. 10—Inman, here. Feb. 18—St. Boniface of Elgin, there. Feb. 21—Orchard, here. Feb. 24-28—Class C tourney at Atkinson. *Niobrara Valley conference games.
