John D. Binkerd, 24, of O'Neill suffered a fractured jaw in this accident. His car crashed into the rear of semi-tractor on U. S. highway 281.—The Frontier Photo.

Driver, 24, Hurt in Car-Truck Incident

John D. Binkerd, 24, an employee of The Frontier and until recently a Ewing resident, suffered two fractures in the jaw about 6:30 p.m., Friday.
He was southbound on U. S. highway 281 when his machine crashed into the rear of a truck-tractor rig. The truck had broken down and was being towed into O'Neill by an A. Marcellis Chevrolet company wrecker, driven by Joe Bartos, when the accident occurred.
The crippled truck had been driven by Clarence J. McClurg, 52, of Grand Island. The 1956 IHC truck was damaged to the extent of an estimated $1,500, State Patrolman Eugene Hastreiter said. Binkerd's car was badly damaged in the right front.
Miss Marilyn Johnson, 15, of Bristow, Binkerd's cousin, was in the passenger car and escaped unhurt. Binkerd had gone to Bristow to get his cousin, who was to assist in the Binkerd home.
The Binkerd's last week became the parents of a son—their second child. Mrs. Binkerd and son were dismissed from the hospital Thursday and Mr. Binkerd was taken to the hospital Friday, transferred the next day to St. Vincent's hospital in Sioux City. His jaw is fractured in two places.
Binkerd said he did not see the wrecker or trailing tractor. Bartos and McClurg said the trailer was lighted, Hastreiter reported.

4-H Community Club Holds Dinner

REDBIRD—The Redbird 4-H club and the Scott Community project club held the annual Christmas party together at Scottville hall Sunday, December 15. A 6:30 o'clock dinner was served. A Santa Claus cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Charles Gifford, centered the long table. Mrs. Frank McDonald prepared the turkey and dressing.
Mrs. Bill Alm, 4-H leader, had charge of the entertainment program which included pieces and songs, by the little folks, a reading by Janet Gifford, and several selections by June and Claranna Carson, Marilyn Graham and Bruce Schollmeyer on their band instruments. At the close of the program Mrs. Frank McDonald, as Santa Claus, caused much merriment when she appeared with a "nut and corn candy" treat for each of the fifty people present.
The young people had a gift exchange. The community project club treated all with a candy bar and apple.
