March to Altar

BASSETT—Miss Lillian Sandall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sandall of Bassett, was united in marriage new year's day with Clifford R. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dick of O'Neill. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p.m., at the Methodist church in Bassett by Dr. Harold C. Sandall of Lincoln, uncle of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar banked with white mums and greenery. She wore a white gown of whispering miramist taffeta and imported Venice lace. Long fitted sleeves tapered to points at the wrists, and re-embroidered floral motifs of lace patterned the sweetheart neckline of the bodice which was fitted and gathered from a front panel. The lace was repeated in applied sprays below the waist of the wide skirt flared into a chapel length, featuring a V-shaped floating panel in back. A queen's crown of rose point lace, encrusted with sequins and pearls, held a cathedral veil of bridal illusion.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade spray of pink delight roses and ivy. Her cultured pearls and earrings were gifts of the bridegroom.

Miss Kay Ann Sandall of Bassett, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length dress of raspberry crystal-ette fashioned with a softly draped surplice bodice above a molded midriff. Her matching hat was trimmed with velvet and she carried a colonial spray of pink roses and carnations.

The bridesmaids were Ruth Blake of Bassett, Elaine Andrews of Chadron and Naomi J. Nelson of O'Neill, who wore matching gowns of pastel turquoise fashioned like the maid of honor's. They also carried similar bouquets and wore matching hats.

The Misses Joan Sandall of Bassett and Karen Hornback of Spencer, candlelighters, were dressed in similar dresses with wrist bouquets.

Delbert Dick of Riverton, Wyo., was bestman for his brother and groomsmen were Edward Sandall, brother of the bride, Niel Christensen of Audubon, Ia., and Bernard

Lorenz of O'Neill. Ushers were Gordon Lorenz of O'Neill and Shelton Hornback of Spencer.

The bride's mother wore a medium blue and the bridegroom's mother wore a black dress, both with pink accessories and rose corsages.

Delbert Dick and Mrs. Ernest Bussinger of Bassett, cousin of the bride, were soloists. They were accompanied by Miss Jean Ingrid Sandall of Lincoln, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Bussinger sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life", "Because" and "Always". Mr. Dick sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlors following the wedding ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Art Weber of Bassett were reception hosts.

Kay Gregory of Scottsbluff, Mrs. Keith Oatman of Lincoln and Mrs. Wesley Sandall of Bassett were in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Karl Linke and Mrs. Clarence Ernst of O'Neill presided at the serving table. The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Mark Spann and cut by Mrs. Ben Ammon, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Mollie Buchenford. The four-tier cake was circled by sweetheart roses and centered on a table with a white cutwork-embroidered cloth. Large white glow candles flanked the cake and were set amid net ruffles and ribbons in the bride's colors of aqua and raspberry.

Those assisting with the reception were Mrs. Harold Allen, Mrs. Lou Hall, Mrs. Harry Titus, Mrs. Cliff Turpin, Mrs. William Arnholt, Mrs. Walter Mauch, Mrs. Everett Wilkins, Mrs. Oliver Woolcott, Miss Jo Anne Morton, Beth Gallo-way and Marcia Weber, all of Bassett.

Individually wrapped pieces of the bridegroom's cake were served by Gay and Rita Sandall of Bassett, nieces of the bride. The couple left on a wedding trip after which they will be at home on the Red Cedar ranch near Bassett.

The bride will be graduated from the University of Nebraska in June and was graduated from Rock county high school. She also attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years.

The bridegroom is a graduate of O'Neill high school and served two years in the army.

Out-of-town guests attended the ceremony from Alnsworth, Spencer, O'Neill, Chadron, Wayne, Wakefield, Lincoln, Omaha, Chambers, Scottsbluff, and Audubon, Ia.

A pre-nuptial dinner was held at the Range cafe for 40 guests preceding the ceremony. A rehearsal party was held Tuesday evening for 30 guests at the Archie Sandall home.
