

Inman Tigers Are Sandhills Champs

Outcome of Title Game Foretold

BRUNSWICK—Coach Bill Miller's Inman Tigers, having knocked off Oakdale last year's champs in the opening round, sailed past Meadow Grove, Clearwater and Orchard to capture the Sandhills conference trophy at Brunswick.

The Tigers bounced Oakdale, 56-39, in the opening round while Page was punishing Chambers, 33-19, and Orchard was besting Elgin, 42-41.

In second round play, Page lampooned Brunswick, 33-29, after a scare; Clearwater eliminated St. Ludwig's of Creighton, 54-29, and Inman rocked Meadow Grove, 64-30.

In Thursday's semifinals, Inman was behind only once in skidding Clearwater from the running. Ned Kelley scored 17 points for Inman but Sam Watson's defensive play stole the show. In the other semifinal game, Orchard defeated Page, 41-32.

It was Jerry Cederburg who potted 18 points for Orchard. Dick Cork was best for Page with 14. Page trailed all the way.

In Friday's title game, Inman jumped into a commanding lead after the first four minutes and the outcome never was in doubt. Coach Miller, after the game, observed that Orchard has a "much better team than the score indicates".

Inman grabbed a 16-point margin before the game was very old. Ned Kelley rolled in 20 points; Sam Watson, 15. Elston and Erb were outstanding for Orchard.

Before going into the Sandhills meet, the Tigers had met and vanquished both Clearwater and Orchard.

Clearwater defeated Page, 42-40, for third place honors.

Ewing Splits with Orioles, Creighton

EWING—The Ewing Tigers had their hands full until the final four minutes in Friday's game against Creighton. Ewing won, 61-42.

Sonny Carl rolled in 32 points for the victors, making his average this far 21 points per game. On Tuesday night the Tigers lost a 48-45 decision to the Orchard Orioles on the Orchard court. Carl and Larry Rotherham hit 12 points each for Ewing.

The Tigers were restricted by Orchard's small court. Marlon Cederburg tallied 12 for Orchard, including 10 out of 13 freethrow attempts. Ewing lost the game on freethrows, converting only three of 22 attempts. The Orioles, on the other hand, hit 16 of 27 tries—largely on Cederburg's marksmanship.

Orchard reserves won, 45-40, in an extra period.

Spalding Captures 56-55 Thriller

CHAMBERS—Spalding defeated the Chambers Coyotes Tuesday night, 56-55, at Chambers—a thriller all the way. Chambers was ahead only once in the game—that was a 47-46 margin midway in the third period.

Forward Roy Elkins scored 33 points for Chambers; Bittner had 20 points for Spalding. Chambers reserves won, 30-19. Chambers girls won their volleyball game, 38-19, over Spalding.

Wood Lake No Match for Balers

AKINSON — Coach Mary Boesen's Atkinson Balers Tuesday night entertained the Wood Lake team and won 68-28.

Halftime score was Atkinson 32, Wood Lake 6. The Wood Lake girls won the volleyball game.

Eagles Drop Pair of Road Games

Springview, Neligh Register Wins

Springview 46; O'Neill 41. The O'Neill high Eagles were defeated, 46-41, Friday night in an up-and-down, fast-moving cage game with the Springview (Keya Paha county) Indians at Springview.

Inability of the Eagles to hit the hop and excessive fouling cost the game, Coach Bill Edwards explained.

O'Neill connected on 11 out of 22 freethrow attempts. However, Springview annexed 22 points on 45 gratis attempts.

Shepherd, a thorn in O'Neill's side all evening by virtue of his 6-5 stature, rolled up 31 points for the Indians. Larry Oetter chalked up 18 for O'Neill.

Springview converted 47 percent of the field tries while O'Neill limped along with 25 percent success.

Neligh 63; O'Neill 47. The Neligh Warriors, paced by Bill Bomgart with 33 points, sailed past the O'Neill Eagles, 63-47, Tuesday night on the Neligh rink. Seventeen of Bomgart's tallies were freethrows.

Larry Oetter paced O'Neill with 18. The O'Neill crew is short and young and has bright hopes for the future.
