

Tip That Started 21st Holt Tourney

Denny Ickes (33), Page center, gets the tip in this first play of the 21st annual Holt county basketball tourney, which opened here Monday night and continues through Friday. Stuart Broncos defeated Page, 43-27, in the tourney opener. Opposite Ickes is Russ Cobb (45) of Stuart. Other Broncos are Tom Bigelow (42) and Dana Bigelow (52). Page players are Dick Cork (21) and Gary Bowen (23). At left are Jerry Taylor (41) of Stuart and Ronnie Parks (22) of Page. (Other tourney photos by Larry Frisch of The Frontier's staff on page 4.)

Cronin.

pearing on page 3.

Safeway Preview

be sold at the preview, it was ex-

Mother of 12, Dies

71, mother of 12 who had

SPENCER-Mrs. Adam L. Koe-made her home in Spencer the ing at 8 o'clock at the church.

Pallbearers chosen were Nich-

On May 29, 1906, at rural Bak-cer, she married Mr. Koenig.

Survivors include: Widoweruniform.

Mattie A. Leslie Succumbs at 85

To Holt County in Covered Wagon

ATKINSON - Mrs. Mattie A. January 28. Leslie, 85, died at noon Sunday, January 19, in Our Lady of Lourdes hospital at Norfolk.

Mrs. Leslie, who was acutely ill, was taken to the Norfolk hospital two days before her death.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, January store, inspect the modern facil
See this wonderful new food of Ewing, store, inspect the modern facil-21, at the Seger funeral home in ities from the front doors to the dren. tkinson with Rev. Gene Ander- back doors," Safeway Stores, Inc., son of Newport and Rev. Robert Paul, pastor of the Assembly of God at O'Neill, officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery here.

Pallbearers were Carl Krogh. Charles Gifford, Fritz Brockman, Roger Rosenkrans, Fred Wells and C. E. Worth, all of the O'Neill community

The late Mrs. Leslie, whose maiden name was Mattie Alice Copp, was born at Castle Rock, Minn., October 26, 1872, the only daughter of John and Adeline

On March 5, 1898, she was united in marriage with Willis E. Leslie of Independence, Ia. They became the parents of two daugh-

Mrs. Leslie came to Atkinson with her parents in a covered wagon from Minnesota and settled northeast of Atkinson. In later life she made her home with her widowed mother on the family farm and about 47 years ago moved into Atkinson.

She was one of the longest residents of the community. There was only a cluster of dwellings in the town when the Copp family arrived. She was graduated from the Atkinson high school in Mrs. Leslie was a member of the Assembly of God church She was preceded in death by her parents. Survivors include: Daughters Mrs. Eugene (Hazel C.) Lee of Norfolk and Mrs. Floyd (Grace G.) Spindler of Atkinson; two grandchildren and two great-Spencer Woman, 71, grandchildren.

Two File in Fifth; Pay Hikes Under Study in State

Lloyd L. Durre of Ewing has filed for Holt county supervisor the Fifth district, seeking here. nomination on the republican ticket. Harlan Dierking of Amelia, a republican, is incumbent, having received the appointment following the resignation of Kenneth Barthel of Chambers. Dierking last week filed for the

Meanwhile, other filings - not- olas Marx, Harold Cork, John ably of incumbents-are consid- Schmidt, Melvin F. Jacoby, Elwin ered slow in taking place. Some Reed and Edward Martin. Burial been ill are undecided pending a clarifi-cation of wage schedules. County der direction of the Jones funeral boards throughout the state have home not been hasty in revising upward the pay scales even though, in some instances, the boards Ritz, was born March 5, 1886, at have the authority to do so. In some nearby counties there Fred Ritz and Mary Hying Ritz. have been no filings todate. Major offices in Holt pay $3,600 per er Catholic church, north of Spen-

Culvert End of Trail for Coyote II seven sons were in military

AMELIA-Earl Coxbill of Atkinson flew out over the south coun- of Albin, was killed in action durtr on Sunday. January 12, to hunt ing that war. covotes. He spotted three of the varmints and was joined in the Adam; sons-Army M-Sgt. Lawhut on land by Orland Fryrear rence of Savannah, Ga; Alphonse and William Fryrear with their of Spencer; Navy Cmdr. Albin of one particular coyote was trailed and the hunt was joined by the Whiteomb and Ira Lien of McPherson, Kans.; Norbert of Hank Whitcomb and Ira Lier- Omaha; daughters-Mrs. A. B. mans and their dogs.

nans and their dogs.

At the final roundup, which nded at a culvert on the Rolland Hanson of Valentine; Mrs. Rich-Swanson ranch, there were 13 and (Clara) Albert of Anaconda, dogs in the chase. The lead dog belonging to Orland Fryrear captured the culprit after it was Burke of Lexington; 25 grandscared out from under the culvert. children.

PAGES

TEN PAGES

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 77.—Number 39.

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, January 23, 1958.

Seven Cents

Death Claims Two Former Holt Officials

William E. Wulf, 80, an Infant When Family Reached Holt

EWING-William E. ("Willie") Wulf, 80, a Holt county supervisor for neary a decade and virtually a lifelong resident of the Ewing community, died late Wednesday, January 15, in Antelope Memorial hospital at Neligh. He had been hospitalized about 10 days. Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m., Saturday, January 18, at the Ewing Methodist church.

The church pastor, Rev. Lee Brigden, officiated. Mrs. Keith Biddlecome and Ed Hoag sang, "The City Four Square", Rock of Ages" and 'In The Garden" with Mrs. Wilbur Spangler accompanist. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Muff and Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Maben of Clearwater. Pallbearers were Clarence Schmiser, Claude Elliot, Ernest Twiss, Cletus Muff, Maynard Stearns and Gail Boies. Burial Planned Jan. 27 A preview of O'Neill's new Safe- was in the Ewing cemetery. William Emil Wulf, son of Fredway store, corner of Fifth and

Douglas streets, has been sched- drick and Sophia Wulf, was born uled from 5 to 9 p.m., Monday, July 16, 1877, at Clinton, Ia. He came to Nebraska with his The store's grand opening will parents and grandparents at the ake place at 8 a.m., Tuesday, age of 11 months and grew to manhood on his parents' homestead in the Deloit community. The open-house will include refreshments. No merchandise will

Weds in 1901 His father initially settled in plained by Manager Thomas Antelope county in 1879 and in 1881 moved onto the homestead one mile east and 11 miles south

On September 10, 1901, at Neligh announces in its invitation aphe was united in marriage to Emma Neiderheide. To this union two children were born-Florence He and his wife lived on the homestead until he was elected to the Holt county board of supervisors in 1940. They spent a total of 41 years on the Wulf homestead.

In January, 1941, they moved to Ewing, so he could devote all his time to his new duties. He served in this capacity for about 10 years. He also took great interest in all community affairs.
In July, 1950, he was appointed to the Holt selective service board and held that post at the time of Observe Golden Wedding The Wulfs observed their 50th wedding anniversary in 1951. Eight persons who attended the wedding were present at the celebration.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Gus; two sisters-Rosa Robinson and Lizzie Hughes; one grandson, Richard Wulf. Survivors include: Widow-Emma: daughter - Mrs. Florence Maben of Clearwater; son-Carl of Clearwater; grandchildren -Maben of Grand Island; Mrs. Gerald (Carol) Goldfuss of Castro Valley, Calif.; James Wulf, who is in the navy at Bainbridge, Md.; Caledonia and a war-time bride Douglas and Randelle Wulf, both of an Atkinson serviceman, died of Clearwater; five grandchildren; at 4:30 a.m., Sunday, January 19, four great-grandchildren; sisters- in an Omaha hospital where she Mrs. Minnie Reimer of Ewing had been ill four months. and Mrs. Bertha Owen of Crook, tended the funeral.

BENEFITS PLANNED

polio benefit at Orchard Friday night, all proceeds going to the march of dimes fund. The Or-ORCHARD-There will be a past 36 years, died Friday mornhere.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, January 21, at St. Mary's Catholic church with Rev. Robert Stein Inght, all proceeds going to the march of dimes fund. The Orchard alumni team, and the Orchard alumni team, and the Orchard Towners will church with Rev. Robert Steinchurch with Rev. Robert Stein-square off against the Orchard lands. Her parents were Laurent hausen, church pastor, officiating. high Orioles in the basketball fea- Jean and Louise Armoud. Her her farm home. She had been in Rosary was said Monday even- ture.

CHAMBERS-Mrs. T. E. New-

Mrs. Humphrey . . ized four months.

Mr. Wulf . . . served decade on Holt official board. — The ident 52 years.

New Caledonia War Bride Dies at 42

Angele J. Humphrey Burial Tuesday

(Photo below.)

ATKINSON - Mrs. Angele J. Humphrey, 42, a native of New Funeral services were conduct-

Out-of-town relatives and fri- ed at 10 a.m., Tuesday, January 21, at St. Joseph's Catholic church Crook, Colo., Lincoln, Grand Is- ating. Burial was in St. Joseph's land, Clearwater and O'Neill at- cemetery under direction of the Seger funeral home. Pallbearers were Dale Stevens, Australia. She met Thaine Humphrey of Rosary was held at 8 o'clock and George Montgomery. Monday evening. Survivors include: Her parents; half-sister-Mrs. Augusta Zeljak of Alliquippa, Pa., who was here for the funeral.

The sister was accompanied by Mrs. Bert Belsky of Aliquippa and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wike of Omaha. The Wikes knew Mrs. Humphrey in New Caledonia.

M&M Club Meets-

M&M club met Tuesday evening with a 7:30 luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harry Clausson. Mrs. Gertrude Gribble was a guest. High sores were won by Mrs. Esther Harris and Mrs. Arlo Hiatt.

DIES IN SIOUX CITY L. Murphy of Sioux City, husband of the former Ruth Pribil of O'Neill, died in Sioux City.

Walter K. Smith, 73, Dies Unexpectedly; Burial Rites Today

STUART—Walter K. Smith, sr., 73, died unexpectedly about 2 p. m., Sunday, January 19, of a heart attack at the home of his daughter, Miss Marguerite Smith, at Stuart. He had been a resident of the community 52 years. His passing followed by 21/2 months the death of his wife, Grace, who died last October 29. Mr. Smith had not been ill.

Funeral services for the former Holt county supervisor will be 2 p.m., today (Thursday) at the Stuart Community church. Burial will be at Stuart under direction of the Coats funeral home. Rev. Curtis Barnett and Rev. Charles Gates will officiate.

Music at the funeral will be provided by Mrs. Robert Bray-ton, Mrs. Harry Cowles, Mark Nelson and J. G. Brewster, singers, to be accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Mark Nelson.

Active pallbearers will be Donald Krotter, Kelly Meyers, Wilbur Moon, Clifford Nelson, James Newman and Berlin Mitchell. Honorary pallbearers will be L. H. Roberts, Fred O. Zink, Frank Wilson, Mahlon Shearer, Emil Oklday and Andrew Moss. Born in Iowa

The late Mr. Smith was born September 15, 1884, at Wheeler Grove, Ia., a son of Abraham and Olive Smith. He was reared there and on November 25, 1905, united in marriage Grace L. Francisco. As newlyweds the couple came to Stuart. For a time Mr. Smith operated a livery stable here, but for many years was a farmer-rancher. Although residing in town, he made almost daily trips to the homeplace northeast of here.

'Mike' Schaaf, 74, Mr. Smith served two terms as Holt supervisor in the Sixth district. He had served on the village board, township board and Stuart board of education. A year ago he retired from the town One daughter, Gladys Juanita, died at the age of two-years-old. Survivors include: Daughters-Miss Marguerite of Stuart, with whom Mr. Smith had been making his home; Mrs. Don (Pauline) ally a lifelong resident of this community, were conducted at 10 a.m., Saturday, January 18. Schafer of Stuart; Mrs. Ernest

(Grace) Smith of Bassett and Mrs. Fred (Janibell) Frater of Mr. Schaaf died late Thursday, Coatsville, Pa.; son-Walter A., January 16, in the Atkinson hosjr., of Stuart, present Holt su- pital, having been seriously ill pervisor in the Sixth district; 11 since November. He had been grand-children; brothers -Merton hospitalized at Omaha and enof Basin, Wyo., and Paul of Miller, Mo., both of whom arrived 3. tered the hospital here January of Cody arrived in O'Neill Tuesday and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Wednesday for the funeral; sisters-Mrs. Ivo Burke and Mrs. Maude Shank, both of San Ga-Calif., neither of whom be present for the final rites were held at St. Joseph's

Mrs. Carl Ford of Casper,
Wyo., niece of the deceased, also arrived Wednesday.

Catholic Charles Barlan was in St. Joseph's cemetery under direction of the Seger funeral home
The late Mr. Schaaf was born

Lifelong Resident of Ewing Is Dead

ends from Vale, S.D., Sturgis, S.D., with Rev. Robert Morroco offici- Mrs. Albert Shrader Funeral Held

EWING-Funeral services for Earl Penry, Willard Linville and Mrs. Albert Shrader, 73, who re-George Wedige, all of Atkinson, sided northeast of Ewing, were

She died Friday, January 17, at birthplace was on the islands off poor health the past two years and in failing health the past two house has been teaching parttime for Mrs. Jerry O'Malley who has been ill Atkinson in New Caledonia during World War II. They were married November 9, 1944 in New Wayne Lautenschlager and Mrs. Dale Napier. Pallbearers were The couple came to Atkinson John Napier, Lionel Gunter, Ed Thorin, Don Larson, Dewitt Hoke

Mary Jane Cushman, daughter of Robert A. and Rachel A. Cushman, was born October 30, 1884, near Ewing. She spent her entire life within two miles of her birthplace. On Janaury 4, 1905, she was united in marriage with Albert L Shrader. Three daughters and three sons were born to this union. She was preceded in death by her husband, who died January 5, 1951, seven half-brothers and two half-sisters. She became a member of the United Presbyterian church in the possibility of severing the li-

United Presbyterian church in 1913. She attended church services regularly as long as her health permitted. She was an active member of the Women's Missive member of the Women's Missive metric was advanced on the possibility of severing the library from township operation with a view toward making the O'Neill library a municipal library.

Pallbéarers were Morris Hegber of the r. Vernon Johnson, Harry Holmberg, Harry Ruda, George Spangler and George D. Sediacek. ionary society. Survivors include: Daughters—
Survivors include: Daughters—
Mrs. Wilbur (Luella) Bennett of library financial comparisions do

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. VanVoorhis

Mr. and moved into it just be-ciation, 49 registered bulls and sons-Ralph L, and Wayne R., and physical plant, and relatively few Consumers Public Power district females; show and sale at O'Neill Lewis of Ewing; sister-Mrs. Em- books are purchased each year manager's meeting in Columbus. Livestock Market; Kieth A. Abart, O'Neill, sale manager. Mrs. Coover had been making from library funds. However, lib-Mrs. VanVoorhis visited Mr. and Spent the weekend in Broken Bow visiting their daughter and fam-

Full-Color, Full Page Ad-

O'Neill Model Makes Time Mag An O'Neill miss "has arrived" catches the eye. She appears in from St. Mary's college at Xavier.

as a New York City model. In a a trim grey suit in a comfy ex-multicolored advertisement in ecutive's office. ed in an office setting in a full- mas time.

Time magazine, January 20 issue, Miss Hynes visited her mother into training as an air steward-Miss Bernadette Hynes is pictur- and other relatives here at Christ- ess.

page layout which extolls the She vaulted into modeling via Kans., she was unanimously chosmerits of Weldwood walnut pan- Pan American airlines. A five- en "Miss Task Force" by six foot-six brunette, she was grad- hundred infantry, engineering But the blue-eyed Irish lass, uated from St. Mary's academy and medical personnel at the laughter of Mrs. Leona Hynes, in 1951 and in 1955 was graduated army post.

Meanwhile, during sojourns at home, she represented the O'Neill Lions club in a statewide beauty contest at Scottsbluff, ranking second. She was crowned queen at WJAG's 30th birthday celebration in 1953 and reigned that year at the Nebraska state fair. The modeling requires strict diet discipline and long hours of

In July of that year she went hardwork She told friends during the holdays a lot of film is spent before the advertising specialists settle on the right picture for the right Her first crash into big-time came when her hand was featured in a nail polish ad. That wasn't very rewarding, she admits. The Time picture was taken about a year ago, and it wasn't until a fortnight ago she was aware the colored negative was going to be in print.

She has done modeling for a half-dozen clients on Madison avenue, including Revlon's advertising agency.
"It's fascinating work," she told The Frontier in a holiday in-

"and there are thousterview. ands of girls in the field. "The expensive color film that is used up . . . it's amazing!" Her mother operates the O'Neill Style Shop.

Native of Austria Dies Unexpectedly

STUART-Mrs. Albert Deseive, a resident of the Stuart and Newport localities since 1906, died unexpectedly at her home here about 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, January 22. She had not been ill.

Rosary services will be by Truck on Street this evening (Thursday) and Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the this evening (Thursday) and Fri-Coats funeral home. Requiem Jerry Schmidt, 5-vear-old-son of high mass will be conducted at Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Schmidt of St. Boniface Catholic church Sat-Omaha, was killed Monday after- urday morning, January 25, and non when he was struck by a burial will be in St. Boniface truck driven by Michael Barrett, 25, of Omaha. The little boy was

A daughter of Johann and Mary Chanter Schonwelder, she was Funeral services will be held born September 29, 1877, at Oberat 9 a.m., today (Thursdav) at St. grund, Austria. She married Mr. Mary's Catholic church in Oma- Deseive at Obergrund May 11, 1903. The couple came to the United States and to Stuart in 1906.

Jerry is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmidt of O'Neill. Her husband worked on a farm in the community and on the Chicago & North Western railroad Wiliam and Richard, all of Nensection until 1917, when they movzel and Mr. and Mrs. John Nollete ed onto a homestead farm north Grandsons were pallbearers at Ed Schmidt for the trip to Omaof Newport. The family returned to Stuart in 1926.

Survivors include: Widower; sons-Alfred of Crawford and Fred of Stuart; daughters-Mrs. Alvin (Marie) Myas of Texas and Hedwig Williams of Norfolk; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; sister - Mrs. Theresa Siegel of Stuart.

Icy Roads Blamed Accident Series

Icy highway conditions late Saturday and throughout Sunday Schaaf was reared is located sev- derson, 52, a farm woman resid- made driving hazardous in much en miles north of Atkinson, two ing four miles east of Spencer, of north-Nebraska. Meanwhile, died Friday, January 17, in Im- the extreme southeast section of the state received heavy snow. About two inches of snow fell here following the freeze. Motorists between Sioux City and O'Neill reported up to 50 vehicles in ditches. A Hartington man, Farrell L. Trevett, 29, was killed west of South Sioux City on U. S. highway 20 when his car collided with a westbound truck on icy pavement, and Thomas C. Stone, 57, of Sioux Falls, S. D., was killed near Homer on a snowcovered highway.

Mrs. Lloyd Durre and two children escaped serious injury Saturday evening when their car overturned a half-mile north of the Summerville corner in Wheel-er county. The trio suffered only bruises. The top of the latemodel car was smashed.

Damages estimated at $150 rebamages estimated at $150 resulted Sunday when cars driven by D. W. Borg and T. M. Donohoe both of O'Neill collided near the Legion hall. The accident was investigated by Police Chief A two-car accident involving cars driven by Kenneth L. Moore of O'Neill and Walter Welsh of Emmet was reported last Thurs-Emmet was reported last Thurs-

Housewarming

for Kilmurrys ATKINSON-Twenty neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kilmurry came to their home Sunday evening for a surprise house warming party.

The Kilmurrys built

ily, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wade.

Expires at Omaha to Atkinson in infancy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mrs. Earl Anderson Rites at Bristow SPENCER-Mrs. Earl C. Anmanuel hospital at Omaha.

Miss Hynes . . . reproduction of portion of multicolored adver-

Nephew, 5, Killed

attempting to cross the street.

Mrs. John Schmidt and

Spencer Woman, 52,

tisement in current issue of news magazine.

Burial at Atkinson

Came to Homestead

in 1885

for Michael L. Schaaf, 74, virtu-

Larry Schaaf, Duane and Leonard

Jansen and Gerald Schaaf. The Catholic church. Burial was in in Butler county in 1883 and came

He married Lesta Pettinger April 28, 1908, at St. Paul, Nebr.

miles west and one-half mile

Survivors include: Widow

Norbert (Ethel) Jansen,

Estimate $5,000 for

The homestead where south.

locality;

66 grandchildren.

brary purposes.

unanimously approved.

ATKINSON — Funeral services

the funeral: Dean, Mike, and ha to attend the funeral.

January 21, at Trinity Lutheran church in Bristow with Rev. Benard Nelson, church Roads and Library past or officiating. Burial was in the Lutheran cemetery, north of Bristow The annual Grattan township under direction of meeting was held Tuesday and the Jones funeral budgets were approved for the road and bridge fund and for lihome The late Mrs Anderson, whose It was estimated five-thousand-dollars would be needed for road Olson, was born October 9, 1905, same as the budget requests of a and Naomi, all of Spencer; moth- McGinn investigated. year ago. Both requests were er-Mrs. Lena Olson of Anoka; inanimously approved.

It was also unanimously voted both of Anoka; sister—Mrs. Ray to have the township board ap- (Edna) Anderson of Anoka.

This motion was advanced on Kip, in Albion.

and bridge expenses and five- at Moline, Ill. thousand-dollars for library op-erations. Both figures are the son—Norman; daughters — Nona 7th and Everett st. Chief Chris point a committee to investigate add to wulfs

Tuesday, February 18: Holt County Hereford Breeders' asso- (Alberta) Napier of Orchard: The library is undergoing a program of improvement of the Albion. Mr. VanVoorhis attended cream and coffee for lunch.