Hagensick Takes Command of LST

Navy Ens. Donald Hagensick, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hagensick of O'Neill, has been named commander of the USS Lafayette County LST-859. He relieved Lt.-Cmdr. W. E. Smith which took place aboard ship on the main deck.

The Lafayette is a tank landing ship 327 feet long with a 50-ft. beam. Her mission in wartime is the landing of tanks and other mechanized vehicles on the enemy's shore as part of an amphibious assault.

Since 1954 the Lafayette has been engaged primarily in supporting the training of army and marine troops in the Hawaiian area.

Ensign Hagensick's immediate superior officer is Admiral Leahy. Hagensick's address: USS Lafayette County LST-859 c/o FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

WCTU Organizing 6- to 12-Year-Olds

PAGE—Members of the Holt chapter of the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of the county president, Mrs. Dora Townsend of Page for the January meeting. Mrs. Jud Russell was a guest.

The WCTU will sponsor the organization of the six-to-12-year-old children's group in a Loyal Temperance Legion with Mrs. Burl Baty as leader, Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw, assistant leader.

Reports were heard from the heads of the various departments. Mrs. Mewmaw expects to have a white ribbon service in April.

A discussion was held following the lesson on "Red Opium" which is a United Nations problem. The hostess served lunch.
