

Korean Youngsters Get Hand-Me Downs

A group of Korean youngsters are decked out in hand-me-down clothes from O'Neill—thanks to the initiative of Sgt. Dale Bellin of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellin of O'Neill. Sergeant Bellin is a former member of the national guard unit here now on duty with Company B, Second Medium Tank Battalion, 40th Armored Div., APO 7, care of PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Members of the Methodist Adult Fellowship and the First National Bank paid the shipping costs. Sergeant Bellin's mother and other O'Neill women helped to accumulate 40 packages, which were forwarded before Christmas.

The Korean girls are wearing sweaters and coats that will be readily recognized by Mrs. Louis Wray and Mrs. Ben Vidricksen—they were the donors.

Korean youngsters . . . their clothing came from O'Neill.
