Doris Mae Childers Bride of O'Neillite

Miss Doris Mae Childers of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Childers of Elgin, and Michael E. London of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. London, were united in marriage Monday, February 17. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 10 a.m., by Rev. John McNally at St. Boniface Catholic church in Elgin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a white tulle gown with chantilly lace over skimmers taffeta. The fitted bodice had a high sabrina neckline with a lace flower motif embroidered with iridescent sequins. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. The chapel length bouffant skirt featured a wide shirred scalloped-edged peplum above alternating shirred tiers of tulle and lace. The taffeta plateau veil was applied with alencon lace and outlined with pleated illusion. It was embroidered with seed pearls. Her bouquet was red roses.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Louis Thiele of Omaha, was matron of honor. She appeared in a ballerina length gown of white embroidered net over pink taffeta. It featured a wide cummerbund with a large bow in the back. She wore a matching necklace and earrings, which were a gift of the bride. She carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

Richard London of Spalding served as his brother's bestman. Ushers were Wayne Childers of Omaha, a brother of the bride and Wayne Donohoe of O'Neill. The bridegroom and bestman were attired in white dinner jackets and dark trousers.

Following the ceremony a dinner for the immediate relatives was held at the church hall. A reception from 2 until 4 p.m. was also held in the hall.

Mrs. Paul Senses of Humphrey cut the wedding cake. Miss Delores Henn of Elgin posed. Mrs. Melvin Scitling of Elgin had charge of the guest book. Taking care of the gifts were Mrs. Henry Schueth of Elgin and Mrs. James Jochem of Petersburg.

The bride is a graduate of St. Boniface school in Elgin and was employed by Postal Finance company of Omaha. The bridegroom was graduated from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill and is employed by Western Electric company in Omaha.

Among those attending from here were the bridegroom's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Donohoe and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cuddy.
