

Schools Receive $54,187 from State

Holt county schools have received $54,187.78 from the state, according to Miss Alice L. French, Holt county superintendent of public instruction.

From this amount, $8,863.96 is from school land taxes and is paid to the districts where the school land is located. The free high school fund will receive $4,734.57. One-fourth of the remainder is divided so $156.36 goes to each of the 128 eligible school districts in Holt.

School districts will receive the other 75 percent based on persons between the ages of 5 and 21 living in the district, or $3.10 per pupil on the census for all eligible districts.

County fines and licenses gave the schools $4,768 which was also divided per pupil on the census or $1.14 per pupil in the district. The amount each Holt county high school district received and the number in its last census follows:

O'Neill (930)	$6,016.73
Atkinson (475)	3,120.39
Ewing (206)	1,995.83
Inman (119)	1,765.45
Stuart (223)	1,772.13
Chambers (92)	73.44
Page (77)	636.84
Amelia (33)	492.31

Hull Completes Assessing Chores

Levi Hull, who has spent several weeks with relatives in Smithland, Ia., returned to do assessing in Belle and Rock Falls townships. He completed his work Thursday and prepared to go to Parmalee, S. D., to visit.

"At the many farms and ranches where I called, I found lots of hay, feed, cattle and corn. The new grain tax caused little trouble at all, and people were very cooperative in filling their returns. We had to make allowances for spoiled hay."

An Igloo's To Eat!

For a winter party with Eskimo decorations, plan this "no cook" dessert that can be assembled in the morning, and have its final touch of coconut glory added well in advance of serving. Its simplicity belies its appearance and its lusciousness. Then, too, by serving these simple Coconut Confections you leave yourself plenty of time for the preparation of a more elaborate entree.

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup sugar
- Dash of salt
- 1 egg yolk, unbeaten
- 1/2 cup drained canned crushed pineapple
- 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
- 1 egg white, stiffly beaten
- 24 large vanilla cookies
- 1 cup cream, whipped
- 1 cup Baker's Angel Flakes
- Coconut

Cream butter. Add sugar and salt gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg yolk and mix well; then add pineapple and nuts. Fold in beaten egg white. Spread mixture between cookies and stack 3 to a serving. Chill several hours in refrigerator. About an hour before serving, frost top and sides of each stack with whipped cream and sprinkle with coconut. Chill again. Serves 6 to 8.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Edwards and Zane went to Tilden to see the doctor Thursday. The roads drifted so much while they were gone they had to do considerable scooping to get home.
