Awarded Lead Role in Campus Show

Miss Brenda Evonne Cole (above), daughter of Charles V. Cole of O'Neill, recently was designated for the major role of Juliet in "Thieves Carnival", a three-act play written by Jean Anouilh. Talex, as the Nebraska State Teachers college senior-sponsored campus talent extravaganza is called, will be presented to the public in the Wayne city auditorium Friday, May 9. The production is loaded with humorous whims, romance and masquerades. The setting is a palatial home where two attractive young girls reside. The dwelling is invaded by three affectionate thieves on one hand and by a country bumpkin on the other. Romance blooms between the youngest thief and Juliet. He cannot accept her love because of conscience and turns with vengeance toward his job. Miss Cole is a second semester student, taking one year elementary. She will finish her course in the spring of 1939.—O'Neill Photo Co.
