

FIREMEN CALLED
O'Neill firemen were summoned at 2:30 p.m., Friday to a children's club house in the alley at the rear of Myrtle cafe in West O'Neill. The small, improvised building was burned to the ground. Three fire trucks answered the alarm and malfunctions were reported on all three, including stuck valves on one water pump.

Mary E. Graham April Bride in Church Rite Here

Before altars decorated with Easter lilies and hydrangeas on the railings, Miss Mary Eleanor Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham, and Duane Gordon Lindenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindenberg of Starkweather, N.D., were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church Saturday, April 12. The double ring ceremony was performed at 10 a.m., by Rev. Robert Duffy.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a chapel length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle and satin. The low basque bodice of lace was styled with scallops forming the tulle yoke and Queen Anne collar. The long molded sleeves came to points at the wrists.

The full bouffant skirt of ruffled tulle over satin was trimmed with wide lace insertions which came to points in the front and back. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught in a lace cloche trimmed in ruffled tulle and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with white feathered carnations. The prayer book was a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. David Maughan of Tilden was matron of honor for her sister. She appeared in a blue and white nylon sleeveless gown that featured a blue cummerbund which formed a sash in the back. She wore a tiara and carried white carnations with blue streamers.

Kenneth Lindenberg of Starkweather, N.D., was bestman for his brother. Ushers were Richard Graham, a brother of the bride, and David Maughan of Tilden, a brother-in-law of the bride. All wore business suits and white carnation boutonnières.

The bride's mother appeared in a blue and white flowered dress with blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a navy dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Miss Cecelia Ann Arbutnot accompanied the Misses Ellen Donohoe, Helen, Mary Ellen, Frances and Theresia Boyle, who sang "On This Day" and "Jesus I Praise Thee".

A dinner at noon was held at the Town House for the wedding party, relatives and Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan and Rev. Robert Duffy.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents from 2 to 4 p.m.

The table carried out the bride's colors of blue and white. Smilax circled the three-tier wedding cake which was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. It was baked and decorated by Mrs. Carl Colfack of O'Neill.

Mrs. Burton Kimball of Osmond, an aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Melvin Wass, of Starkweather, N.D., a sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake. In charge of the gifts were the Misses Marlene Harrington of Washington, D.C., and Mary Neiman. Miss Marie Ritz had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Lindenberg is a graduate of St. Mary's academy. Mr. Lindenberg is a graduate of Starkweather High school. He is employed as a surveyor with the Bureau of Reclamation.

After a few days' wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple left for their home in Newcastle, Wyo.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tomjack and Miss Florence Ponton were the ladies' brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Ponton and Barry of Battle Creek. They accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Merle Hunt, also of Battle Creek. They visited his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunt and family.

National Youth Day Will Be Observed

Youth of the Assembly of God church will join some 86,000 young people of Assemblies of God churches throughout the United States Sunday, April 20, in observing the 12th national youth day. A special Sunday evening service will feature members of the local youth organization, directed by President Bernice Jenkins.

During the public service scheduled for 8 p.m., a religious skit, "If They Had Known", depicting current youth problems, will be presented.

Rev. Eldred E. Cummings, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church in Spencer, will deliver the closing message. Reverend Cummings is the newly-appointed parole officer for this area.

Officers of the sponsoring group, in addition to Mrs. Jenkins, are Vernetta Krogh and Mrs. Connie Walters.

Priscilla Holsclaw, Ramon Schuchman Exchange Vows

The First Presbyterian church of O'Neill was the scene Sunday, April 13, of the wedding of Miss Priscilla Holsclaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Holsclaw of O'Neill, and Ramon Schuchman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schuchman of Grand Island. Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the 3 o'clock double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with candles and baskets of white snapdragons and yellow gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of hand clipped nylon lace and nylon net. The bodice of the dress featured short sleeves and a bateau neckline. The waltz length skirt of nylon ruffled tiers was covered by a clipped nylon lace apron. Her veil was of illusion held in place by a beaded tiara.

She carried a bouquet of white ten roses tied with pale green ribbons.

Miss Janice Holsclaw, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Miss Eileen Osborne, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of white and pale green dotted nylon sheer over taffeta. The bodices of their dresses featured pale green bands of taffeta tied in bows at the back. They wore white picture hats and gloves and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies and baby mums trimmed with green ribbon.

Arnold Schuchman of Lincoln, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. He wore a black suit. Harold Stoppkotte of Grand Island served as attendant. The bridegroom's suit was blue gray. Robert Holsclaw, brother of the bride, and Jack Anderson of Grand Island served as ushers. The bridegroom attendants, and ushers wore white carnation boutonnières.

bridegroom's mother wore navy dresses with white carnation corsages and white accessories. The soloist, Mrs. Don Peterson of Lincoln sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". She was accompanied by Mrs. Harold Seger at the organ.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship hall for 100 guests. Mrs. Don Calkins and Mrs. Bruce McCluhaney were in charge of the gift table. Miss Linda MacKinlay, Miss Delores Hamik and Miss Lonnie Langan served. Miss Mary Jurgensmeier and Miss Mary Janice Remter poured. Mrs. Charles F. Nutter was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride wore a cream duster with print lining and a matching print dress. She wore a white picture hat, white shoes, and carried a white purse.

Mrs. Schuchman is a graduate of O'Neill High school. Mr. Schuchman graduated from Grand Island High school. Both are employed by the Bell Telephone company in O'Neill. After a wedding trip to the Southern states, they will be at home in O'Neill.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Holsclaw and Judy, Mrs. Lois Murdy, Al Murdy, Miss Judy Althouse, Robert Holsclaw, all of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Holsclaw and family of Alliance; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holsclaw and family of Boulder, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoppkotte, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Schuchman, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ewolt and Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Ewolt and Susan, Dean and Dennis Schuchman, George Stoppkotte, Milton Stoppkotte, all of Grand Island.
