Ryschon-Foth Rites in Rural Church
 AMELIA — Baskets of yellow mums and white carnations formed the setting at a candlelight ceremony when Miss Rena Belle Ryschon of Ord became the bride of Gordon G. Foth, also of Ord at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 27. Their marriage took place at Myra Valley country church near their homes.
 Miss Katherine Ryschon, the bride's sister, sang "I Love You Truly", and "Walk Hand in Hand with Me".
 The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a white lace floor-length gown over white satin with a finger-tip silk illusion veil.
 Miss Katherine Ryschon, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and appeared in a green net over satin waik-length gown.
 Other attendants were Miss Jeanette Chipps of Ord, who wore a lavender net over satin gown, and Miss Gloria Burson, who appeared in yellow net over satin. Flowergirl was a sister of Miss Burson. She was gowned in white net over satin.
 The bridegroom was attired in a grey suit. He was attended by his brother, her brother and a friend.
 Mrs. Homer Scholz of Valentine, an aunt of the bride, poured the wedding cake was served to the guests along with coffee and punch. The young couple will make their home on a farm near by.
 The bride is a niece of Frank Pierce of Amelia.
Brother, Veteran of World War I, Dies
 Bill Becker, 66, a veteran of World War I, died at Exeter. Mrs. Ed Humpal, Mrs. Max Hamik, Mrs. Josephine Judge and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Jansen drove to Exeter to attend the funeral services.
 Mrs. Judge and Mrs. Jansen are sisters of the deceased.
