Wanda Lea Stevens Bride in Church Nuptials at Page

PAGE—The sanctuary of the Methodist church provided the setting for the pretty wedding of Miss Wanda Lea Stevens of Onida, S. D., and David Lee Johnson, also of Onida, Sunday, May 25, in a 2 o'clock rite with Rev. Leslie Mewman, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Davis Willets was soloist and sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because", with Mrs. Harvey Holbrook, sr., at the piano.

Pink and white carnations in tall vases and baskets of spring flowers graced the altar and were repeated in the reception hall.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stevens of Page. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. Idor Johnson of Rutland, S. D.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a waltz-length gown of white nylon and acetate lace. The moulded bodice featured a square back neckline with a huge bow at the waistline. The full gathered skirt was fashioned with a pleated nylon net front panel inset edged with lace, over a ruffled net underskirt.

Her court train was held by Juliette and Elvin Stevens of San Manuel, Ariz., brothers of the bride, ushered. The men of the party were attired in the conventional business suit and had white carnation boutonnieres.

Kenneth Stevens of Hoyt Lake, Minn., and Elvin Stevens of San Manuel, Ariz., brothers of the bride, ushered. The men of the party were attired in the conventional business suit and had white carnation boutonnieres.

Her accessories were tan. Her corsage was fashioned of deep pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship hall for 75 guests. Those in charge of the arrangements were Mesdames Cordes Walker, Gerald Lamson and Edd Stewart. Mrs. Keith Cable, postmaster, and Mrs. Elvin Stevens served the cake. Jennelle Allen and Helen Finch were waitresses.

Kathleen Walker presided over the guest book and Mrs. Richard Buxton of Omaha was in charge of the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of the Page high school and the Grand Island Business college and was employed at the Onida bank.

The bridegroom received his education at Rutland, S. D., and is employed at the agricultural stabilization office at Onida.

The bride chose for her going away costume a beige plaid gingham dress with green accessories. Following a short wedding trip through the Black Hills the couple will be at home at Onida.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mrs. Francis Madison, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cable of Virginia, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brandt of Atkinson; Mrs. Richard Buxton of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Stevens of San Manuel, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stevens of Hoyt Lake, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Milo Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holbrook, jr., and Mr. and Mrs. David Willats, all of Orchard, and C.
