East O'Neill Club Has New Uniforms

The East O'Neill Cardinals won their third league game in a row Monday night by posting a 12-5 win over Ewing at Ewing. John Helmer pitched four-hit ball for the cards.

The West O'Neill Pee Wees came from behind with five runs in the last of the sixth inning Monday to defeat Orchard, 6-5.

Tonight (Thursday) West O'Neill meets East O'Neill at 6 p. m., on the East diamond located five blocks north of the stoplight. Bill Kelly is manager of the West team and Fred Appleby is coach of the East team.

The East O'Neill club is sporting spanking new uniforms.

Melcher, Cork

Push Youngsters

PAGE—Harold Melcher and Lloyd Cork have pushed the organization of a pee-wee and mid-level baseball program in Emmet.

The peewee met the Emmet team on the Page diamond Monday night under the floodlights. The Page crew registered the most points but the scorekeepers lost count of the exact number of tallies.

Melcher and Cork were pleased with their pupils. More games are scheduled.

The official score of Monday's game was fixed at 23 for Page; 15 for Emmet. Page had 14 hits compared to six for Coach Bob Cole's Emmet kids.

Melcher had four hits in five trips for Page while Richards connected twice in three trips for Cole's Athletics.
