Jury Says Truck Driver Negligent

CENTER—A coroner's jury returned a verdict that the accident in which Otto Dryak, 54, of Niobrara suffered fatal injuries was the result of negligence on the part of Vac Ondracek of Verdigré. But the jury recommended that Ondracek not be prosecuted for motor vehicle homicide. The jury was called by Knox County Attorney Merritt C. Warren on Thursday, May 29—the day after Mr. Dryak died. Mr. Dryak was driving a car and Ondracek was driving a truck when the two vehicles collided at the edge of Verdigré. The jury heard nine witnesses. Ondracek testified he drove onto the highway in front of the Dryak car after he failed to see any approaching vehicles. Five others in the Dryak car were treated for injuries.
