Range Study Is Held Wednesday

The 4-H range conservationists met June 24 to practice range evaluation and identification of grasses. This was the second meeting held this year in a series of three meetings.

Wes Whitver of the soil conservation services was the resource man for this meeting. The emphasis was placed on range evaluation, use and possible treatment. Soil and soil type was also discussed. One more of these meetings will be held sometime in July.

Janice L. Patras, Vincent J. Latzel Exchange Vows

CLEARWATER—Miss Janice LaVerne Patras of Clearwater and Vincent James Latzel of Ewing were united in marriage Wednesday evening, June 11, at the Latter Day Saints church here. Elder Arthur Gibbs of Independence, Mo., officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patras of Clearwater, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Latzel of Ewing.

Miss Jeanette Giampe of Norfolk was soloist. Miss Barbara Westerhoff of Elgin was accompanist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a ballerina-length gown of white brocaded satin. The gown featured princess lines with a full skirt. A headband of lace and seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil. She carried an arrangement of yellow carnations and lily-of-the-valley.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Sharon Twiss, cousin of the bride, and Miss Patricia Latzel of Ewing, sister of the bridegroom.

Jerry McKillip of Elgin was best man. Ushers were Thomas Patras, brother of the bride, and Merlin Shunk of Ewing.

A reception was held for 80 guests. Miss Donna Damm had charge of the guest book and gifts were arranged by Mrs. Clyde Ewing cut and served the wedding cake, which was baked by Mrs. Walter Westerhoff of Elgin. Misses Dortha Yaryan and Carol Knapp served.

The bride, graduated from Clearwater high school, has been teaching in the district 89 school. The bridegroom was graduated from Ewing high school.
