Naming New-Born Colt Is Problem

'City Cousins' to Aid in Project

ROCK FALLS — More excitement Friday morning at the John Schultz farm for the child and their "city cousins". The girls' pony, "Glass Eyes", brought her new baby down to share in the breakfast oats. The newcomer is a palomino.
Up-to-date the Schultzes haven't found a name good enough. The chief worry is: Will it change color?
Someone said sometimes little colts shed baby hair and a different color comes in.
Well, it should be a wonderful horse, regardless of color, according to the youngsters.

Other Rock Falls News

Almost everybody in the Rock Falls and surrounding territory attended the Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon performances of O'Neill's sixth annual rodeo. There was a big crowd both performances witnessing a show well worth the money. Everyone is looking forward to another show next year.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tadd and baby daughter spent Saturday evening at the John Kersbrock home while their sons, Bruce and Stanley, accompanied the John Schultz family to the rodeo. It was their first opportunity to watch a show of this kind and they thought it was great. On Sunday morning the family left for Omaha after having spent the past week at the Schultz home. In Omaha they will visit a few days with Mrs. Tadd's sisters, Mrs. Owen Hiatt and Mrs. Bernard Spry and families, afterwards stopping briefly with friends in Leavenworth, Kans. They expect to be at home in Lewisburg, Pa., by next Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Kersbrock visited Wednesday evening, June 18, at the John Schultz home, also with the Clarence Tadd family. The children said an early "goodnight" and retired. Bruce and Stanley, Gwenda, Trudy and Debbie had been swimming all afternoon.
Tuesday, June 17, supper guests at the James Curran home included Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curran, Betty and Mary Jo, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Curran and children, and the Donlin twins, Sheryl and Karyl, George Curran and Anita Eklund.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and boys visited at the John Schultz home Friday evening.

Make Plans for Big Convention—
Jehovah's Witnesses from the O'Neill congregation announced plans are under way to attend an international convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in New York City this summer.
Carl E. Andersen, presiding minister of the O'Neill group, said the convention could well be the largest in the history of Jehovah's Witnesses. It is scheduled for July 27 through August 3 and will be held in Yankee stadium and the Polo Grounds simultaneously.
The last international convention, attended by O'Neill Witnesses, was held 1953 in Yankee Stadium and reached a peak attendance of 165,000, including the overflow audiences.
Mr. Andersen stated that it is not yet known how many Witnesses from the area will attend, but he added, special travel arrangements are being made by train, bus and car. He said further it may be necessary to make limited meeting arrangements or cancel local meetings altogether during convention time.

Phoenix Live Wires Name Animals—
The Phoenix Live Wires met at the home of Linda Damero on Friday evening, June 20.
