Administration Building 35% Completed

The new administration building at Municipal airport is approximately 35 percent completed, it was stated this week by Airport Manager Walter C. Kopejtka. Udey Construction company of Neligh has the contract. The completed building will cost between 14- and 15-thousand-dollars with the city's share one-fourth. Since O'Neill's omnirange radio facility-at the airport has gone on the air, there has been a marked increase in air traffic overhead and some increase in traffic at the airport. The drone of planes is heard overhead at almost anytime of the day, especially until about sundown.-The Frontier Photo.

New Building Progresses

Work is progressing rapidly on the new North | Fifth st. office building which will house the Elkhorn Valley National Farm Loan association (north half of the building) and the O'Neill Production Credit association (south half). The building will be jointly owned and occupied and may be finished by August 1. John R. Gallagher, attorney, will move into the building being vacated by NFLA. and Judge D. R. Mounts has leased space in the Harmon building being vacated by PCA.-The Frontier Photo.
